SESSIONS OF THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

(Note.—Six Conferences were held in Virginia before the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States was organized, and five of them were held within the territory of the Virginia Annual Conference. But they were not, strictly speaking, Virginia Annual Conferences. Hence, these Conferences do not appear among the sessions enumerated below. The Annual Conferences proper number their sessions, respectively, from their first meeting after the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church as an independent ecclesiastical body, December, 1784. In conformity with this rule, the sessions of the Virginia Annual Conference are numbered from the meeting held at Mason's, Brunswick County, Virginia, May, 1785. Since then sessions thereof have been held in regular succession year after year, within the geographical limits assigned it by the General Conference of 1796, except as to the years 1791 and 1841, when changes in the time of the year of the meeting of the Conference made it necessary to hold two sessions in each of these calendar years, making one hundred and five sessions in one hundred and three years.)

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS, 1915.

Opening.—The Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, assembled in its one hundred and thirty-third annual session, in Cumberland Street Church, Norfolk, Virginia, Wednesday, November 17, 1915, at half past nine o'clock a. m., with Bishop Warren A. Candler in the chair. The hymn beginning, "Jesus, the name high over all," was sung, and the Bishop led in a fervent prayer, after which he read a selection from the eleventh chapter of First Corinthians and made impressive comments thereon. After the singing of "Rock of Ages," the Lord's Supper was administered to the members of Conference by Bishop Candler, assisted by four of the older brethren.

Organization.—Conference was then called to order, and Bernard F. Lipscomb, secretary of the last Conference, called the roll of clerical members in chronological order, and also the roll of lay delegates, and 228 clerical members and 22 lay members answered to their names.

On motion, Bernard F. Lipscomb was elected secretary, and Jesse T. Whitley and Frank L. Wells assistant secretaries.

Conference decided to meet daily at half past nine o'clock a. m., and adjourn at one o'clock p. m.

On motion, the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of five members to nominate the Committees on Admissions and on Conference Relations.

It was ordered that the further calling of the roll be dispensed with.

The bar of the Conference was fixed at a line across the room at the fourth window from the pulpit.

Committee on Temperance.—On motion of W. A. Christian, a Committee on Temperance and Other Social Reforms was appointed, consisting of those members of the Conference who are members of the Executive Committee of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, namely: T. McN. Simpson, R. H. Bennett, S. C. Hatcher, W. A. Christian, E. T. Dadmun, W. H. Vincent, J. F. Bellows, J. S. Peters, and James Cannon, Jr.

Communications Referred.—Papers were introduced and referred as follows: A communication from the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, read and referred to the Joint Board of Finance; a communication from the General Board of Education, referred to the Conference Board of Education; a report from the General Board of Church Extension, referred to the Conference Board of Church Extension; a communication from R. H. Bennett, Secretary of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training, referred to the Conference Board of Education; a report from the General Sunday-school Board and the Sunday-school Editor, referred to the Conference Sunday-school Board; a report from the Educational Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, read and referred to the Conference Board of Education; and a report from the Laymen's Missionary Movement, referred to the Board of Lay Activities.

Resolution Referred.—Lee G. Crutchfield and others offered a paper with reference to requesting certain pastors to assist their brethren in revival services, which was, on motion, referred to the Conference Board of Missions.

Summer School of Methods.—A communication was read from the Norfolk District Conference, recommending the establishment of a Summer School of Methods, and referred to a special committee, which was constituted as follows: G. C. Kelly, J. T. Catlin, John Victor, T. S. Southgate, S. P. Jones, J. C. Reed, G. H. Lambeth, J. N. Latham, and D. G. C. Butts.

Nominating Committee.—The Bishop announced the following brethren as the committee to nominate the Committees on Admissions and on Conference Relations: W. A. Christian, W. B. Beauchamp, J. N. Latham, G. H. Spooner, and E. T. Dadmun.

Asbury Centenary.—J. R. Laughton, James Cannon, Jr., and C. E. Blankenship offered the following paper, which was unanimously adopted by the Conference:

Whereas, March 31, 1916, will mark the centenary of the death of Francis Asbury, the first Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and,

Whereas, American Methodism is preparing to celebrate the anniversary with appropriate services and exercises; and,

Whereas, The life and labors of Bishop Asbury ended in Virginia; therefore be it

Resolved, That we suggest:

1. That on Sunday, March 26, 1916, a sermon be preached by every pastor in our Conference on the life and labors of Francis Asbury.

2. That at the next session of the Virginia Conference, over which Conference Bishop Asbury presided twenty-six times, a portion of time be set apart, of not less than one hour, for the purpose of observing with appropriate exercises the centenary of the death of the sainted Asbury.

3. That the presiding Bishop of our next Conference be invited to deliver on that occasion an address on Bishop Asbury.

4. That our Conference organ be requested to give during next year the fullest possible publicity to articles covering various phases of the subject.

Fund for Superannuates.—J. F. Carey offered a paper from the Eastern Shore District Conference, relating to the founding of a special fund for superannuate preachers, which was referred to the Joint Board of Finance; but afterwards this action was reconsidered, and the paper was referred to a special committee consisting of L. H. Early, F. T. West, W. B. Beauchamp, C. T. Womack, G. W. Wray, S. W. Ames, W. A. S. Conrad, H. E. Barrow, J. H. Light, J. P. Pettyjohn, G. T. Forrester, C. H. Sawyer, H. H. Smith, J. E. Young, D. T. Merritt, E. F. Storey, J. W. S. Robins, W. J. Courtney, T. A. Smoot, and G. J. Hunt.

Committee on Collections.—On motion of B. F. Lipscomb, James Cannon, Jr., S. J. Brown and C. H. Williams were appointed a Committee on Collections, to which shall be referred all applications to take public collections during this session of Conference.

Greeting to Baptists.—On motion, J. C. Reed was appointed to send a message of fraternal greeting to the Baptist General Association of Virginia, about to convene at Clarendon, Virginia.

Carroll, who has been on the superannuate list, passed in examination of character, and went to the effective list.

Pending the call of the above names, the time of the session was extended for the completion of the list.

And then, after the singing of the doxology, the benediction was pronounced by J. H. Amiss, and the Conference adjourned.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1915.

Conference met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., Bishop Candler in the chair. A hymn was sung, and W. J. Young led in prayer. Bishop Candler read a selection from the Gospel of St. Matthew and made an earnest talk on the Harvest and the Reapers. Conference then joined in singing, "Children of the Heavenly King."

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Papers Referred.—The report of the Publishing House was presented, and referred to the Committee on Publishing Interests.

A communication from J. H. Shumaker, Secretary of the Methodist Benevolent Association of Nashville, Tenn., was presented and referred to the Joint Board of Finance.

Superannuate Endowment Fund.—Rev. J. R. Stewart, representing the Superannuate Endowment Fund, was introduced to the Conference, and made an interesting address in behalf of that cause.

Randolph-Macon Trustee.—A communication from S. C. Hatcher, Secretary and Treasurer of Randolph-Macon College, presenting the name of James T. Catlin as a trustee-elect of that College in place of John P. Branch, deceased, for confirmation by the Conference, was read and referred to the Conference Board of Education.

Letter from Dr. Newton.—A letter from Dr. J. C. C. Newton, a member of this Conference, now laboring as a missionary in Japan, was presented and read by the secretary.

Visiting Officials Introduced.—Mr. S. Whybrew, business manager of the Baltimore and Richmond Christian Advocate; Dr. R. H. Bennett, Secretary of the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and Mr. W. F. Pearce, manager of the Richmond branch of our Publishing House, were introduced to the Conference. Dr. Bennett made a strong address in behalf of the work which he specially represents.

Resolution of Sympathy.—B. M. Beckham and M. S. Colonna offered the following paper, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Rev. James W. Bouldin, one of the most faithful and devoted members of this Conference, lies ill in a hospital, where he has undergone a serious operation; therefore

Be it resolved, That we extend to Brother Bouldin and his family our deepest brotherly sympathy, and assure them of our prayers for his speedy recovery to health.

Time of Memorial Service.—On motion of J. C. Reed, the Conference Memorial Service was made the special order for Friday at eleven o'clock a. m.

E. T. Dadmun was granted leave of absence to visit an ill relative.

The Conference Orphanage.—E. Frank Storey, representing the Virginia Conference Orphanage, presented a paper, which was referred to the Joint Board of Finance.

Referred to Committee on Conference Relations.—Minute Question 22, "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" was again called, and the following brethren passed in examination of character and their names were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations: W. J. Twilley, T. J. Taylor, J. T. Whitley, W. G. Bates, Sr., and J. R. Sturgis.

Traveling Deacons.—Minute Question 10, "What traveling preachers are elected deacons?" was called, and Walter S. Brown, Christopher C. Jones and Aden P. Williams, having passed an approved examination, made their reports, and, being already in deacon's orders, were severally advanced to the Class of the Third Year. William H. Grubbs, Orson B. Newton and Henry T. Todd, having passed an approved examination, made their reports and were severally elected deacons and advanced to the Class of the Third Year. W. P. Province, not having completed the examination, was passed in examination of character and remained on trial in the Class of the Second Year.

Conference Annual.—J. T. Whitley, editor of the Conference Annual, made some explanatory remarks about that publication, and the secretary made some annuancements.

Local Deacons.—Minute Question 12, "What local preachers are elected deacons?" was called, and Samuel Henry Davis, James Baxter Douglas, Hugh Davenport Mollart, William Jennings Boyd, Walter Scott Deyerle and Charles T. Harrell, having been duly recommended, and having complied with all the Conference requirements, were severally elected local deacons.

Local Elder.—Minute Question 16, "What local preachers are elected elders?" was called, and Horace D. Guerrant, a local deacon of the Danville District, having complied with all the conditions, and being duly recommended, was elected local elder.

More Visitors Introduced.—Rev. George R. Stuart, of the Holston Conference; Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn., and several other visiting brethren were introduced to the Conference. Dr. Ivey made a forceful address on the subject of Christian Literature.

And then, after the singing of the doxology, W. E. Judkins pronounced the benediction, and the Conference adjourned.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1915.

Conference met at 9:30 o'clock a. m., Bishop Candler in the chair. "Jesus, I my cross have taken," was heartily sung, after which prayer was offered by James O. Moss. The Bishop read the twelfth chapter of The Acts and followed it with a vigorous exposition. The Conference then joined in singing, "Come, ye that love the Lord."

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Memorial Service Changed.—On motion of B. F. Lipscomb, the action of Conference appointing eleven o'clock to-day for the Memorial Service was reconsidered; and, after some discussion, on motion of James Cannon, Jr., the Memorial Service was set for Saturday at twelve o'clock noon, the Conference to adjourn immediately at the close of the exercises.

Ferrum School Report.—B. M. Beckham read his report as Principal of the Ferrum Training School, including a financial statement, and the same was referred to the Conference Board of Education.

Hall Fund.—The Trustees of the Hall Fund made the following report, which was adopted by the Conference:

The Trustees of the Hall Fund beg leave to report that they have in bank the sum of one hundred and fifty-five dollars and forty-one cents, and they ask authority to pay over the amount to the Treasurer of the Conference Fund.

> (Signed) B. F. LIPSCOMB, S. C. HATCHER, Trustees.

Thanks to Dr. Stuart.—James Cannon, Jr., and others offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

- 1. Resolved, That the thanks of this body are extended to Dr. George R. Stuart for the great address delivered in this church last night concerning the development of the youth, laity and ministry of our Church.
- 2. Resolved, That we again express our great interest in the effort of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Church to establish at Lake Junaluska a great central Assembly Grounds for our Church, and we pledge the hearty co-operation of this body to the movement.

3. Resolved, That as we understand Dr. Stuart desires to present some of the details of the work of the Assembly to the Conference, and as he is obliged to leave at noon, he be invited to address the Conference for thirty minutes at a quarter past eleven o'clock.

Alternates Enrolled.—J. N. Walker, alternate from the Charlottesville District, was enrolled in place of J. K. Dean, absent principal delegate; W. A. Trotter, alternate from the Petersburg District, in place of S. R. Gresham, absent principal; and J. E. Rogers, alternate from the same District, in place of W. A. Stephenson, absent principal.

S. W. Ames, lay delegate from the Eastern Shore District, was reported present.

Remain on Trial.—Minute Question 2, "Who remain on trial?" was called, and the following preachers on trial, having passed an approved examination, and their work being favorably reported, passed in examination of character and were severally advanced to the Class of the Second Year: Joseph S. Gresham, Theodore G. Laughon, Bernard S. Via, Richard R. Burnett, Leslie F. Callaham, James A. Chapman, Jacob J. Clarke, T. Maynard DeShazo, Walter S. Deyerle, James B. Douglas, James L. Finch, Leon S. Flournoy, William H. Hantzmon, Charles T. Harrell, Edward M. Higginbotham, Eugene B. Loving, Charles H. McNeill, Hugh D. Mollart, Henry W. Neville, A. Walter Roten, Arthur L. Stephenson, and Sterling W. Wilkinson. Edgar W. Davis, Wade H. Fletcher, Otis L. Gilliam, and William L. Burks, not having come before the Committee of Examination, passed in examination of character and were severally continued in the Class of the First Year. (Z. V. Johnston, transferred after Conference, is also on trial.)

Dr. Stuart Speaks.—In accordance with a resolution previously adopted, Dr. George R. Stuart responded to the invitation of Conference, and made an earnest address in reference to the Southern Assembly at Lake Junaluska, N. C.

Death of the Oldest Preacher.—Announcement was made of the death this morning of Rev. Thomas J. Bayton, the oldest member of this body. The preparation of a memoir of Brother Bayton was referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

Belgian Visitor's Message.—The Bishop introduced Rev. Henri Anet, who represents the Franco-Belgian Committee of Evangelization, and Dr. Anet made a very interesting talk upon the material and religious condition of the Belgian people. And then, by permission of Conference, a cash offering was taken for the relief of the distressed people of his native land, amounting to $153.46.

Sunday Services.—The arrangements for pulpit service in Norfolk and vicinity on Conference Sunday were then announced by J. M. Rowland, secretary of the Committee of Arrangements.

More Visitors Made Welcome.—Dr. John A. Kern, Professor in Randolph-Macon College, and the Rev. Mr. Vest, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, were introduced to the Conference.

Telegram from Baptists.—J. C. Reed, who was appointed to send the greetings of this Conference to the Baptist General Association of Virginia, reported that he had discharged the duty assigned him, and that the following telegram of response had been received:

CLARENDON, VA., November 19, 1915.

Dr. J. C. REED,

Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, South, Norfolk, Va.:

The Baptist General Association of Virginia reciprocates your cordial greetings. May our Father guide your deliberations and bless your great work.

Hugh C. Smith, Secretary.

Local Deacons.—Minute Question 12, "What local preachers are elected deacons?" was again called, and the following brethren, being duly qualified as required by the Discipline, were severally elected to deacon's orders: James A. Chapman, Avery Walter Roten, James Love Finch, Thomas Maynard DeShazo and Joseph S. Gresham.

Dr. McMurry.—Dr. W. F. McMurry, Secretary of our General Board of Church Extension, was introduced to the Conference.

And then, after the remaining notices had been given, the doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced by Dr. McMurry, and the Conference adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1915.

Conference met at half past nine o'clock a. m., Bishop Candler in the chair. "Sweet Hour of Prayer," was devoutly sung, and prayer was offered by C. C. Wertenbaker, after which "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," was sung with spirit.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

W. B. Moore's Name Referred.—Minute Question 22 was resumed, and W. B. Moore passed in examination of character, and his name was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

None Re-admitted.—Minute Question 5, "Who are re-admitted?" was called, and answered, None.

Elders' Orders Recognized.—Minute Question 7, "Who are received from other Churches as local preachers?" was called, and the following brethren, being duly recommended and qualified, were recognized as being in elder's orders: George W. Allman, from the United Brethren Church, and Oscar L. Martin, from the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Traveling Elder Received.—Minute Question 8, "Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers?" was called, and William Charles Harris, an elder from the Methodist Episcopal Church, was admitted as an elder in full connection, he having complied with the conditions laid down in the Discipline.

Admitted into Full Connection.—Minute Question 4, "Who are admitted into full connection?" was called, and William H. Grubbs, Orson B. Newton, Henry T. Todd, Aden P. Williams and Walter S. Brown, having passed in examination of character, and having passed an approved examination on the Course of Study, were examined before the Conference by the presiding Bishop as required by the Discipline, and were appropriately addressed by him, and, having made satisfactory responses, were severally admitted into full connection.

Admitted on Trial.—Minute Question 1, "Who are admitted on trial?" was called, and George Henry Ivanhoe Mayo, Harry Peter Anker, Leon Wesley Hendrickson, Charles Wesley Moss, Edgar Garlick Hill and Charles Leslie Salmon, having passed the required examination, and being duly recommended, were severally received on trial into the traveling connection.

Deacons Advanced.—Minute Question 9, "Who are the deacons of one year?" was called, and the following brethren, having passed the required examination, and being duly recommended, passed in examination of character and were severally advanced to the Class of the Fourth Year: James E. Avery, Jr., Cecil C. Bell, Allen W. Linthicum, William A. Orser, John B. Peters, Bart D. Stephens, Fleming W. England and Hadley V. Clarke. The name of John W. Fizer was called under this question, but he not having appeared before the committee of examination, and not having gone to the appointment assigned him at the last Conference, a motion to locate him was made by C. C. Wertenbaker, and, pending the discussion of this motion, the further consideration of Question 9 was postponed until next Monday.

Elected to Elder's Orders.—Minute Question 14, "What traveling preachers are elected elders?" was called, and the following brethren, having passed an approved examination, and having made their reports, passed in examination of character and were severally elected to elder's orders: William A. McAllister, Frank E. H. McLean, Horwood P. Myers, Guy H. Newbury, Hiram F. Turner, Roscoe M. White and William Archer Wright. Wilton L. Mays and William J. Watt, being already in elder's orders, made their reports and passed in examination of character. Granville Burruss was located at his own request.

Memorial Service Held.—The time for the order of the day having arrived, the Conference proceeded to hold a solemn memorial service in honor of those members who have died during the past year. The hymn beginning, "It is not death to die," was tenderly sung, and William E. Judkins, one of the oldest members of the Conference, led in prayer.

The Memoirs of deceased brethren were read in the following order:

That of Mumford S. Elliott, by J. C. Reed.

That of George E. B. Smith, by J. R. Laughton.

That of Joseph G. Lennon, by E. T. Dadmun.

That of Milton L. Williams, by L. B. Betty for J. H. Amiss.

That of Joseph B. Merritt, by J. C. Reed.

That of John H. Kabler, by L. B. Betty.

That of Thomas J. Bayton, by J. E. DeShazo.

The reading of the Memoirs was interspersed with appropriate singing by the Conference. And then it was ordered that copies of the Memoirs be forwarded to the Book Editor at Nashville, Tennessee, and that the names of the deceased brethren be recorded in answer to Minute Question 21, "What preachers have died during the year?"

After the singing of the doxology, the benediction was pronounced by J. C. Reed, and then the Conference adjourned.

FIFTH DAY.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1915.

At half past nine o'clock a. m. Conference opened its session, with Bishop Candler in the chair. "Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove," was heartily sung, and prayer was offered by Henry E. Johnson. The Bishop read the first chapter of The Acts and expounded it to the edification of the Conference and congregation. "O Spirit of the Living God," was then sung, after which the Conference proceeded to business.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

Telegram from Brother Bouldin.—The secretary read a telegram from J. W. Bouldin, pastor of the Stuart charge, expressing his cordial appreciation of the resolution of sympathy for him in his illness that was adopted by the Conference and transmitted to him a day or two since.

Bishop Certifies Ordinations.—The Bishop presented a Certificate of Ordination, which was read by the secretary, and the same is as follows, answering Minute Questions 11, 13, 15 and 17:

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION.

I, Warren A. Candler, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, hereby certify that, at the close of the morning service in the Cumberland Street Church, Norfolk, Va., on November 21, 1915, I ordained to the office of deacon William H. Grubbs, Henry T. Todd, and Orson B. Newton, traveling preachers; and Samuel Henry Davis, Avery Walter Roten, James Baxter Douglas, James Love Finch, Hugh Davenport Mollart, William J. Boyd, Thomas Maynard DeShazo, Walter Scott Deyerle, Joseph S. Gresham, Charles T. Harrell, and James A. Chapman, local preachers. Newbury, Hiram F. Turner, Roscoe M. White, and William A. Wright, traveling preachers, and Horace D. Guerrant, a local preacher; Rev. G. H. McFaden reading the Epistle, Rev. J. W. S. Robins reading the Gospel, and Rev. George E. Booker and Rev. H. C. Pfeiffer uniting with us in the imposition of hands. Given under my hand and seal on this the twenty-second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, Warren A. Candler.

Evening Session Ordered.—On motion of James Cannon, Jr., it was ordered that when Conference adjourns this morning it shall be to meet this evening at eight o'clock, and that the report of the Board of Education shall be the order of the day immediately after the reading and approval of the minutes.

M. A. Campbell, a lay alternate from the Richmond District, was enrolled as a member of the Conference in place of J. T. McDonald, absent principal.

Report on Summer School of Methods.—The report of the special committee, to which was referred the paper from the Norfolk District Conference relating to a Summer School of Methods at Virginia Beach, was read by G. H. Lambeth, and, after remarks by D. G. C. Butts, was adopted, and the same is as follows: (See Appendix III.)

Transfers Announced.—Minute Question 6, "Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" was called, and answered by the Bishop as follows: M. M. Leggett, an elder from the South Georgia Conference; Fred. R. Chenault, a probationer in the Class of the Second Year, from the Pacific Conference; John Lee Bruce, an elder from the Brazil Conference; H. P. Balderson, an elder from the Montana Conference; David S. Walker, a probationer in the Class of the First Year, from the North Georgia Conference, and William E. Thompson, an elder from the Florida Conference. (After Conference, Z. V. Johnston, a preacher on trial, was transferred from the Western North Carolina Conference.)

Report on Special Fund for Superannuates.—G. W. Wray offered the report of the special committee appointed to consider the paper from the Eastern Shore District Conference. After some discussion by G. W. Wray and others, on motion of W. A. Christian the report and paper were referred to a committee of two preachers and three laymen, to be appointed by the presiding Bishop, with instructions to report at the next annual session. (See Appendix III.)

Committee Named.—The Bishop appointed as the committee thus called for, G. W. Wray, James Cannon, Jr., J. P. Pettyjohn, J. T. Catlin and S. W. Ames.

Chaplain to State Penitentiary.—W. A. Christian offered a paper with reference to the appointment of a permanent chaplain to the Virginia State Penitentiary, which was adopted, and is as follows: (See Appendix III.)

Missions Report No. 1.—Report No. 1 of the Conference Board of Missions was presented, read, and ordered to record as follows: (See Appendix III.)

Another Traveling Deacon.—Minute Question 10, "What traveling preachers are elected deacons?" was again called, and Fred R. Chenault, a probationer in the Class of the Second Year, recently transferred from the Pacific Conference, having passed an approved examination and complied with all the conditions laid down in the Discipline, was elected to deacon's orders and advanced to the Class of the Third Year. Having been examined publicly by the presiding Bishop, and having made satisfactory answers, he was received into full connection, and the Bishop ordained him deacon according to the Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Probationer Advanced.—Minute Question 2, "Who remain on trial?" was again called, and William Jennings Boyd, having passed the required examination and being duly recommended, passed in examination of character and was advanced to the Class of the Second Year.

Recess Ordered.—On motion, it was ordered that the Conference take a recess at a quarter past twelve o'clock to-day, to allow the Virginia Conference Brotherhood to hold its annual meeting.

Report on Conference Relations Recommitted.—The report of the Committee on Conference Relations was read by H. J. Paylor, secretary. A motion made by W. A. Christian to recommit the report failed to pass, as did also a motion by G. H. McFaden to transfer W. B. Moore from the recommended list of supernumeraries to that of superannuates. A subsequent motion to recommit, made by James Cannon, Jr., was carried.

Bible Society.—The report of the Bible Society Board was read by W. G. Bates, Sr. After an address on the Bible work by W. G. Bates, an amendment offered by W. W. Royall was adopted, and then the report as amended was adopted, and is as follows: (See Appendix III.)

One Deacon Continued—Another Located.—Minute Question 9, "Who are the deacons of one year?" was again called, and Horace P. Read passed in examination of character, and was continued in the Class of the Third Year. J. W. Fizer, the consideration of whose case was postponed from Saturday's session until to-day, was again considered; and a telegram having been received from him, he was granted a location at his own request.

Report on Conference Relations.—J. C. Reed, chairman of the Committee on Conference Relations, returned the report of the Committee, which had been recommitted, and moved to strike off the name of W. B.

Moore from the list of those recommended for the supernumerary relation. The amendment was adopted, and then the report as amended was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Conference Relations recommends the following brethren for the supernumerary relation: John M. Burton, William H. Camper, John E. McCartney, Edward L. Pell, Edgar A. Potts, and Eugene J. Potts.

The following brethren are recommended for the superannuate relation: Joseph H. Amiss, Walter G. Bates, Sr., Charles H. Boggs, Henry C. Bowles, Charles W. Cain, Robert N. Crooks, William R. Next Session in Richmond.—Minute Question 52, "Where shall the next session of the Conference be held?" was called, and answered by the Conference Committee on Entertainment: Richmond, Va.

Finance Report Amended.—On motion, the action by which Report No. 2 of the Joint Board of Finance was adopted was re-considered; and, on motion of W. A. Christian, the report was amended so as to appropriate one hundred dollars to Mrs. W. E. Edwards, Jr. And then the report as amended was adopted: (See Appendix III.)

Collection for Sexton.—According to custom, a collection was taken for the sexton of Cumberland Street Church, where Conference is in session, and the sum of $25.00 was contributed.

None Discontinued.—Minute Question 3, "Who are discontinued?" was called, and answered, None.

Thanks!—Resolutions of thanks were offered by W. W. Royall and T. McN. Simpson, and unanimously adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the sincere and loving thanks of this body are due and are hereby tendered—

- 1. To the Committee on Entertainment, who so well and so pleasantly provided for us all.
- 2. To the loving pepole of this city and vicinity for their kind, gracious and abundant hospitality.
 - 3. To our sister Churches for the courtesy of their pulpits.
 - 4. To the various transportation lines for reduced rates of travel.
- 5. To the city press for the full and interesting reports of the proceedings of this body.
- 6. To our excellent secretaries for the competent and faithful discharge of their onerous duties.

Closing Exercises.—The Conference then joined in singing, "Jesus, the truth and power divine," after which Bishop Candler led in earnest prayer.

The minutes of this evening's session were read and approved.

The Appointments.—And then, in answer to Minute Question 53, "Where are the preachers stationed this year?" the Bishop, after a few appropriate remarks, announced the appointments, as follows: (See Appendix I.) The doxology was sung, the benediction pronounced, and the Conference adjourned sine die.

APPENDIX II.-MEMOIRS.

REV. MUMFORD S. ELLIOTT.

BY J. C. REED.

For twenty-five years, at the sessions of the Virginia Annual Conference, a very quiet and unassuming minister, with bent shoulders, bowed head, soft-toned voice and modest mien, has been passing in and out among his brethren. Viewing him from outward appearance, it would be hard to believe that you were looking upon a living dynamo of tremendous and untiring driving power. But so it was. A more indefatigable worker I have never known. The word "fail" was not in his vocabulary. To know that a work ought to be done, aroused in him the determination that it should His persistent efforts accomplished what to others seemed im-Having traveled over several of his fields of labor, I have marveled at the work done in building churches and parsonages, raising money and paying all debts incurred, and yet never neglecting the spiritual interests of his charge. He was a soul winner as well as a church builder. Having been twice his Presiding Elder and thrown in the most intimate relation with him in his work and in his home, I am prepared to bear testimony, without reservation, to his deep piety and great usefulness. Examination of the minutes of the Virginia Conference will show advancement in both the temporal and the spiritual interests of the charges he

The following paragraphs, so admirably written and so true in statement, are taken from the "Sketches of the Virginia Conference":

"Mr. Elliott is of Scotch-Irish descent. His parents were William and Elizabeth J. P. Elliott. From his father he inherited the manly virtues and ready wit of the sons of the Evergreen Isle, and from his mother the firmness and persistence of the Scottish blood. The place of his nativity is Halifax County, Virginia, and he began life April 16, 1862. His parents were pious folk, and carefully taught the lad of the precepts of the Holy One. At the age of sixteen, in 1878, he made a public profession of religion and united with the Christian Church (O'Kelly Methodist). At this early age he felt called of the Spirit to the work of the ministry, but his duty to his parents and other engagements for the time forbade his heeding the call to the sacred work. Later, when free to do so, he set himself in earnest to meet the call of God and fit himself for his high vocation. His parents and the public schools had prepared him for academic studies, but the money to maintain him in the higher schools had to be earned and saved. At last, by industry and economy, the goal was in sight. He spent one year in an academy in his native county, and then matriculated in the famous Bingham School of North Carolina, where he took a three years'

"He was licensed to preach in the Christian Church, but his first work in the pastorate was as a supply on Middle Bedford circuit in 1884, under Rev. Paul Whitehead, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Lynchburg District. In the same year he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. At a Quarterly Conference for Middle Bedford circuit, held November 9, 1889, he was re-licensed to preach and recommended to the Annual Conference for admission into the traveling connection. He was admitted at the following session of the Virginia Conference, and appointed to West Goochland mission."

He was thereafter assigned to the following appointments: 1890-'92, Milton mission; 1893-'95, Essex circuit; 1896-'99, Halifax; 1900-'01, Chatham; 1902-'05, Concord; 1906-'08, South Norfolk; 1909-'11, Prince George; 1912, Gloucester; 1913, Nottoway.

He was married December, 1888, to Miss Sallie B. Pullen, of Bedford County, Virginia. Of this union there were seven children, four sons and three daughters. One son died in infancy on the Concord circuit; the others—three sons and three daughters—with the wife and mother survive to mourn their irreparable loss.

His home life was well ordered. The discipline was most affectionate, but firm. A more tender, loving father I have not known; but love with him was not a weak, sickly sentiment condoning disobedience and wrong-doing. He heeded the apostolic injunction, "And ye, fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." He provided them with good books wisely selected for their mental and spiritual development. Fortunate children, to have been blessed with such a father!

The parsonage and premises always gave evidence of care and thrift. He provided abundantly for his family, and was given to hospitality. He never seemed happier than when ministering to others, and especially his brethren in the ministry. In all these things he had the cheerful cooperation of his wife, whose heart was deeply interested in her husband's work.

He supplied himself with the best of books, and his preaching gave evidence of diligent study. His sermons were simple, clear and strong expositions of the Word of God; not with wisdom of words, but in power and demonstration of the Spirit. He sought to edify and save. God gave him the desire of his heart.

On his last charge, the Nottoway circuit, his health so completely failed that he was unable to do his usual effective work. He superannuated with reluctance at the last session of the Annual Conference, hoping that a year's rest would restore him to his loved employ. He had rented a house in Blackstone, and was moving into it, when at 4:30 p. m., November 25, 1914, he was paralyzed, and at 8:35 a. m., November 26th, he peacefully passed to his great reward. The funeral services were conducted in his home by Rev. J. S. Peters, assisted by Rev. C. F. Comer and Rev. Mr. McNair, of the Presbyterian Church, at 10:30 a. m., November 28th, and the remains were taken to Bedford County and buried in the cemetery of Hickory Grove Church at 5:00 p. m.

No truer or more consecrated man than Rev. Mumford S. Elliott has passed from the ministry of the Virginia Conference to the ministry and service of the heavenly kingdom.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last!"

REV. G. E. B. SMITH.

BY J. R. LAUGHTON.

George Edward Booker Smith was born in Cumberland County, Virginia, March 24, 1870. His father was William James Smith. His mother was Virginia Morgan Booker Smith, a sister of Rev. George Edward Booker, D. D., an honored member of the Virginia Conference, who died in 1899, and whose son is now a member of this body. For this uncle of blessed memory the subject of this memoir was named.

His father having died in 1872, on his mother's death in November, 1877, George was left with his aunt, Miss N. E. P. Booker, who reared him and his two brothers. He attended public schools until he was about sixteen years old. At the age of fourteen he professed religion under the ministry of Rev. W. R. Smithey, who was then serving the Cumberland charge. At the age of sixteen he went to Richmond, Virginia, to live and to get employment. He remained in business life about five years. In 1888 he united with Park Place Sunday-school, which he attended as long as he lived in Richmond. Here he came under the influence of a godly Sunday-school teacher, Miss Maude Morton, who had a great deal to do with forming his plans for after life. She kept in touch with him as long as she lived. Booker Smith is a jewel in her diadem of rejoicing. Teacher and pupil are re-united in glory.

About 1891 Brother Smith left Richmond to study in Sussex under his uncle, Rev. George E. Booker, D. D. He attended Randolph-Macon and Richmond Colleges, paying his way through college by his own efforts. He entered the Virginia Conference in 1895, and was ordained Elder in 1900. On November 26, 1901, he was united in marriage with Miss Eva Sanderson, of Norfolk, Virginia, a niece of Rev. J. Sidney Peters, of this Conference. Brother Smith served the following charges in our Conference: Wachapreague, Epworth (Richmond), Williamsburg, East King and Queen, Benn's Church, Fairmount (Richmond), Cumberland Circuit, and West

Dinwiddie Circuit.

At seven o'clock in the evening of February 24, 1915, after several acute attacks of heart trouble, from which he had suffered at intervals for several years, Brother Smith passed away suddenly while visiting in the home of his cousin, Julian H. Layne, in Ginter Park, Richmond. His earthly remains were laid to rest by loving hands in the cemetery at Cumberland Court House, his native county. His body is back home. His pure spirit has gone home to the land that stretches afar. There survive him two brothers, Judge William M. and Dr. J. Weldon Smith, of Cumberland; his widow, Mrs. Eva Sanderson Smith, and five children, Victor Brandon, Virginia Booker, George Edward Booker, Jr., Frances Carter, and William Weldon Smith.

Those who write and speak concerning men who die in middle life in the prime of their powers, often refer to their lives as broken, cut off, or uncompleted. A tree cut down before its time or a column broken in the middle are favorite figures. Such figures hardly apply to G. E. B. Smith. His was a life given to God. God and he both made good use of it. That life was filled with faithful industry. Its consecration was the consecration of work, which is the truest sanctification. He wrought well. God signally blessed his labors. And when at the early age of forty-four God called him from labor to reward, his work here was finished. His comparatively short life was a well-rounded life well filled out with work faithfully done.

To reckon life according to the years that make up its length, is but a blundering way of estimating it.

"We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; In feelings, not in figures on a dial.

We should count time by heart throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best."

Life should be intensive, rather than extensive. There are supreme moments in almost every life when years are condensed into hours. Some accomplish more in forty years of life than others accomplish in three-score years and ten.

Brother Smith's was an intensive life. As he caught the vision of the purpling hills toward the sunset and felt the sands of life running rapidly out, as the heart action became feebler and the pulse weaker, instead of surrendering he faced the foe with braver front. He quickened his step, though the effort registered its effect upon his body. With courageous smile, unflinching valor, and unfaltering trust in the Unseen, he fought the good fight of faith, laid hold on eternal life, and was borne off the well-fought field more than conqueror through Him who loved us.

We cannot think of our comrade as at rest. His was an unresting life. He never loved his ease. He was always at work. He never put off his armor. He fell in it. He never sheathed his sword. It flashed as he fell and lay gleaming where he lay. So died a young man for the Young Man of Calvary. Splendid chivalry! Heroic soldier of the Cross, as pure as Timothy! To live and die like that is a deathless inspiration to other lives.

Now beyond the sunset and the stars we cannot think of Booker Smith as resting. He is too young to rest. May we rather think of him as having entered upon a larger work. For that is the best reward of faithful labor. The true worker longs for ever enlarging work. In the world without restraints, in the life without limitations, God, the great Master of all labor, rewards His faithful servants with promotion to more extensive fields of labor. And he who has been faithful with his two talents receives the same commendation as he who was faithful with five.

One who was close to Brother Smith said to me in regard to him while he was still living, "He is a thinker, a planner, who executes his plans." One of his loved ones wrote to me recently, "He never knew defeat. If he undertook anything he would carry it through." One to whom our brother ministered in sorrow wrote of him last winter from a distant State: have not known a finer gentleman, a truer man, nor a nobler spirit than G. E. B. Smith. He was ready to take his place, though it might be an humble one, but he was never willing to let his work drag. He pushed it with utmost zeal."

One who entered the Conference with him in 1895 wrote: "Since then he has labored with great diligence and faithfulness in the gospel, and his pastorates have been characterized by unfailing success. He was a man of unusual energy and with the gift of bringing things to pass in a marked degree. His faith was firm and his Christian character without a blemish.

Of sunny disposition and genial spirit, his friends were many."

Another brother minister wrote: "Our deceased brother made friends wherever he labored in the Master's vineyard, and he wrought well and successfully. Modest, gentle, quiet and unassuming, he was faithful, consecrated and true. The translation of Brother Smith was a distinct loss to our Virginia Methodism." One of his members wrote: "His death cast a gloom over this entire section where he was so dearly loved. Smith served us faithfully and well. He was a true Christian gentleman and a pastor in truth and deed. The work he did on this circuit will live for years to come. The children will always love his memory. No preacher was ever more dearly beloved by all the people, regardless of denomination. His love was for all mankind."

In July, 1911, it was my privilege to spend a week with him in a meeting at Centenary Church, Cumberland County, of which he was then pastor. That week of fellowship with him has been green in my memory ever since. I had known Brother Smith slightly for several years before that. During that week at Centenary I came to love him. On that circuit he was pastor of the church in which he was reared. In his case the proverb was reversed. He was highly esteemed in his own country. His people were devoted to him. He was a friend to all—high and low, rich and poor, white and black. He knew no artificial distinctions. The unaffected simplicity of the man, his sterling, manly, Christian character, his remarkable tact, his friendliness, his never-failing good humor, even while his own health was feeble, his cheerful outlook upon life, his utter guilelessness, won hearts to him and fastened them to his own heart as with hooks of steel.

Children were fond of Brother Smith. They hailed with delight his visits to their homes. The young people welcomed him with the same pleasure. They with their parents were interested listeners to his talk, for he was a good talker. His conversation was seasoned with kindly estimates of people, was free from bitterness, and was enlivened with a play of droll humor that was at times irresistible. When rooming and driving together our conversation often turned on the Conference and various members of it. I cannot recall an unkind criticism ever passed by Booker Smith on a brother minister. His estimates were always kind and just.

There was not a truer man among us than G. E. B. Smith. He built up his charges. He developed Christian character. He enkindled nobler aspirations in those whose lives he touched. Hundreds felt his passing as a personal sorrow. "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord." With tear-filled eyes we ask why he was taken away. The answer comes, "All is well."

G. E. B. Smith found the best that was in him. His heart was satisfied with his calling. He lived unselfishly and for others. He played the man. He was free from self-seeking. He counted not his life as dear unto himself. The trustworthiness of this man who was so implicitly trusted by all who knew him, grew with the trusts that were committed to him. So he multiplied himself, manifolding his life in the lives of others.

It is difficult to think of Brother Smith as with us no more in the flesh. We miss him at this Conference. He was with us for nearly twenty years. He will meet here with us no more. But is he really absent? Will he be with us here no more? He is present in the spirit. He is with us in a closer, more real sense than ever before. Some day there will be a glorious reunion of the old Virginia Conference on the other side of death. Then with vision undimmed, clarified by the crystal atmosphere of heaven, we shall see eye to eye, hand will clasp hand once more, heart will leap out to heart, the Master's presence will sanctify and glorify it all, and we shall know fully even as also we are fully known. This is a glorious, imperishable doctrine of that faith once for all delivered to the saints, of which we are custodians. May we keep that faith, as our translated comrade kept it, inviolate.

"It singeth low in every heart, We hear it, each and all-A song of those who answer not, However we may call; They throng the silence of the breast, We see them as of yore-The kind, the brave, the true, the sweet, Who walk with us no more! "'Tis hard to take the burden up When these have laid it down; They brightened all the joy of life, They softened every frown; But oh, 'tis good to think of them When we are troubled sore! Thanks be to God that such have been, Though they are here no more! "More homelike seems the vast unknown Since they have entered there; To follow them were not so hard Wherever they may fare; They cannot be where God is not, On any sea or shore; Whate'er betides, Thy life abides, Our God, for evermore!"

REV. JOSEPH G. LENNON.

BY E. T. DADMUN.

Joseph G. Lennon was born in Baltimore, Maryland, January 23, 1831, and died in Norfolk, Virginia, March 2, 1915, in the eighty-fifth year of his age. His father was a ship captain, and moved his family to Portsmouth, Va., when Joseph was twelve years of age, and in that city Brother Lennon was brought up and spent his life until he was forty-eight years old, when his work as a preacher in charge began. Monumental Church, that old "Mother of Methodism," was the scene of his active labors as a lavman.

In Dr. Lafferty's inimitable "Sketches" we find the following account of his life and labors up to the year 1900: "We put into a few lines data that gauge the man nearer to truth than any general statement. These trophies tell of victories won, and of energy, foresight and zeal that know no flagging. He wrought on 'hard fields.' What sheaves! Who has equaled him? What record outshines the simple story of Joe Lennon? He was licensed to exhort in 1875; to preach, August, 1877, in Monumental Church, Portsmouth, Virginia. He was a local preacher in charge of North Bedford in 1879—built Union Church, ninety-six converts; returned in 1880, built Mt. Carmel, and gained forty-seven converts: or turned in 1880, built Mt. Carmel, and gained forty-seven converts; ordained Deacon in 1881, and sent to Bedford Mission, where he rebuilt Mt. Horeb and commenced a new church, twenty-seven converts; 1882, Fox Hill—repaired church, thirty-one converts; 1883, returned to Fox Hill, built parsonage and had converts; 1884, Roanoke Island and Dare—repaired Bethany and Stumpy Point churches, and had fifty-two accessions; sent back—a great year with him, 160 accessions; 1886, ordained Local Elder and admitted into Conference. He had won his spurs. He was sent, for the third time, to Roanoke, and built three churches—one at Croatan, one at Manteo, one at East Lake—and had thirty accessions; 1887, Pasquotank—repaired and carpeted Union and Newbegun, built New Mt. Hermon, and had eighty-three conversions; 1888, received into full membership in the Conference, and returned to the same circuit—successful years. 1880, 200 Currituel—good years converts. 1891 Perguimans circuit—successful year; 1889-'90, Currituck—good years, converts; 1891, Perquimans circuit; 1892, Dorchester—success, twenty accessions; 1893, Belle Haven built tower to Bell Haven Church and New Broadwater Chapel, thirty-five accessions; 1894-'95, Huntersville (Norfolk), pleasant years; 1896, Liberty Street, Berkley—sad season, beloved wife died, his soul in the dust. In 1897, Caroline circuit—prosperity, twenty-nine added; 1898, Epworth (Richmond)—sweet season, converts; married Miss Nellie T. Burruss, daughter of Atwell Burruss, Esq., of Caroline County, sister to Rev. Frank Burruss, of our Conference, a handsome woman, in her prime; 1899, Cartersville; returned in 1900. Mr. Lennon, counting the difficulties he has met and overcome, would wear, if the Church decorated men with orders and diamonds, the sparkling cross of the Legion of Honor. God has in reserve better insignia."

Beginning where Dr. Lafferty stops his brief but most interesting biography, we find Brother Lennon on Buckingham circuit, 1901-'05; Pocomoke, 1906-'08, and Trinity circuit (where he laid down his labor of love), 1909-'12.

Brother Lennon was a bright example of a class of preachers who have been of untold value to our Church. A man with slender literary attainments, but with happy experimental knowledge of religion, sound common sense, tact, and thorough knowledge of human nature, he counted it the highest honor and the greatest privilege to herald the glad tidings of great joy as an itinerant preacher. No circuit was so poor, and no hardship so great, as to daunt his happy heart, or to cow his high spirit. Everywhere he built up; churches and parsonages were improved, sinners converted, saints more content and useful. In his old age glorious revivals were still found in his ministry; "he bore fruit in old age."

A little more than two years after his superannuation, late in the month of February, he was attacked with pneumonia, and took his bed in the little home he had purchased in Norfolk. His loving wife and children gave him all that tender care could give, but the time to "go home" had come. His wife pays this tribute to his private life: "He lived and talked and sung religion, and never lost an opportunity to speak a word for Jesus. His custom was to go to private prayer three times daily-morning, noon and night. The older he grew, the more he leaned upon the Everlasting Arms. During the six days of his last illness not a murmur nor complaint came from his lips. Only a few moments before he drew his last breath, having given him some little attention, I asked him 'if it was all right.' He replied, 'Yes, everything is all right.' I said again, 'Everything is all right with you, isn't it?' and he replied, 'Yes, everything is all right.' He had no fear of death."

His burial was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. William P. Jordan, Rev. John T. Bosman and Dr. W. E. Judkins. His wife and her four children-Ruby M., Pearl E., Joseph G. and Roy B. Lennon-survive him. He also leaves five sons by his former marriage—Jesse R. and Charles G. Lennon, of Washington, D. C.; William P. Lennon, of Roanoke Island, N. C.; Claude M. Lennon, of Alexandria, Va., and Milton G. Lennon, of Norfolk. These five sons and a grandson were the active pall-bearers at his

We miss his kindly face and brother's greeting. Even more we miss that voice which has raised so many a hymn of courage and triumph as we sat waiting to hear our appointments for another year of labor. His voice is not stilled except on earth. He sings now in the celestial choir.

REV. MILTON L. WILLIAMS.

BY J. H. AMISS AND L. B. BETTY.

MILTON LEE WILLIAMS, son of Joseph C. and Ellen Williams, was born in Portsmouth, Virginia, September 30, 1856.

He was converted under the preaching of Rev. W. E. Judkins, and united with the Monumental Church, Portsmouth.

Brother Williams was educated at Randolph-Macon College. He taught for a few years, and thus helped to equip himself for the work of the ministry. He first worked with the Christian Church, an off-shoot of the Methodists, and served that denomination for seven years with acceptability.

In the year 1887 he united with the Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church, South, and in due time was received into full connection. He became a loyal and faithful itinerant. He always went to his work cheerfully and gladly in the true spirit of a Methodist preacher.

He served the following charges in their consecutive order: Berlin, one year; Surry, two years; Chatham, one year; Sykes Island, three years; South Chesterfield, four years; Patrick, two years; Pittsylvania, two years; Mt. Vernon, three years; Middle Bedford, four years; Bowling Green, one year, and South Amherst, his last charge, one year and four months.

Our brother did effective and faithful work on his various charges in the way of building and repairing churches and parsonages. He was blessed with revivals, and was instrumental in bringing many to the knowledge of Christ. One who knew him well affirms of him that he was a power in revival work, and preached at such seasons with telling effect.

Although somewhat hindered and embarrassed in his work by defective eyesight, yet through his patient and persistent efforts he accomplished helpful and abiding results, and he will be kindly and gratefully remembered by many of those to whom he ministered.

He identified himself with his people, and in their homes was an entertaining guest, and by his good company, interesting conversation, gentle manners and sweet spirit made himself popular with them.

Our brother was more than an ordinary preacher. He was blessed with a good memory, and gave attention to reading and informing himself as to our doctrines and polity, and was a loyal and faithful defender of them. He carefully prepared his sermons and delivered them with a good degree of interest and earnestness. In his spirit and deportment he exhibited Christian graces which attested his knowledge of Christ and his daily walk with Him.

Brother Williams was married to Miss Kate Myrtle Luck, of Scottsburg, Halifax County, Virginia, December 5, 1895, and she became a true and faithful helpmate. She and one son survive to mourn their sore bereavement. We quote from a letter written by his widow, giving an account of his death: "On Monday, March 8th, he climbed a steep hill in making a visit to one of his sick members. He complained of soreness through his body when he reached home. He attended to his work during the week, but was not well. He filled his appointments on the second Sunday, though very feeble. He became sick on Monday, the 15th, and continued to get worse, suffering with internal ulcer. He passed away peacefully at 3 a. m. Sunday, March 28th. The funeral services were held March 29th in the Methodist Church of Scottsburg, and were conducted by Rev. R. S. Baughan, Rev. E. K. Odell, Rev. S. R. Drewry and Rev. H. G. Crews. He was laid to rest at sunset in Oakland Cemetery, Scottsburg, by the side of his baby." This is her closing note: "His churches seemed to be on his mind, and several times during his illness he spoke of his work."

"Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies."

REV. JOSEPH B. MERRITT.

BY J. C. BEED.

When the Chronological Roll of the Virginia Conference was called at its last session in the city of Portsmouth, the name of Joseph B. Merritt stood opposite the number fifteen. To-day another name will take that number. God buries his workmen, but His work goes on. For fifty-two years Joseph B. Merritt has been answering to the roll call of this Conference; to-day he answers not, for God hath taken him. For fifty-two years this quiet, gentle, modest Methodist preacher has been doing his work, and doing it well. But the work has been done so quietly, without noise or show, that only those who knew the man and came in close contact with him and his work, can have any true appreciation of what he accomplished.

My acquaintance with him began in April, 1865, when as a paroled soldier of the Army of Northern Virginia I returned from Appomattox Court House to my home in Brunswick County, Virginia. Brother Merritt was then my father's colleague, or junior preacher, on the Brunswick circuit. He came quietly into our home, and ever afterwards into our hearts. To my father and mother he was as a son, and to their sons he became an elder brother. Thus for fifty years we have known, loved and confided in each other. He was pure in heart and pure in speech, "an Israelite indeed in whom there was no guile."

The following paragraph, which tells of parentage, birth, conversion, entrance into the ministry, and labor on charges, is taken from the "Sketches of the Virginia Conference":

"He is the son of Daniel Tatum and Fannie E. Merritt, and was born near Black Walnut, Halifax County, Virginia, April 28, 1841. He is on his father's side of Welsh descent, and on his mother's, Scotch. His parents were pious members of the Methodist Church long before his birth, and brought him up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He was converted under the ministry of Rev. D. M. Wallace, and joined the church at Bold Spring, South of Dan circuit, in the year 1860; was licensed to preach in April, 1862, by the Quarterly Conference of said circuit, joining the Virginia Conference at Petersburg in November of the same year. He was sent as helper to Charlotte circuit the succeeding year. The next year he traveled Lunenburg circuit, with Rev. R. Michaels as senior preacher; then two years on Brunswick circuit—the first with Rev. L. S. Reed, and the second with Rev. R. Michaels again. Three of these years were times of especial trial—the Civil War was raging. At the Conference of 1866 he was appointed to Patrick circuit, where he served two years. At the close of these years he was married to Miss Ella Lyon, daughter of Major Daniel Lyon, of Petersburg, Virginia, and went to Eastville circuit, remaining there two years. The Church, especially the Sunday Schools, enjoyed great prosperity. Thence to West Amherst one year; two to Amherst circuit; one year each to Smithfield, West Dinwiddie and Sussex; two years at Conquest and Guilford, and at the close of these years to Second Street, Portsmouth."

In 1881 he became the chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel in Norfolk, Va., and continued in this field of labor for thirty years. To this work he gave himself with unremitting toil and self-sacrificing labor. His heart was in his work. The sailors were his brothers, and he looked after their physical and moral well-being, ever hearing his Master's voice, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto Me." He visited every vessel that came into port, distributed tracts and other good literature, and invited everyone to attend the services at the Bethel. A history of his labors among the sailors for thirty years would make a story of thrilling interest. He never allowed anything to interfere with his work. His friends and brother ministers might be enjoying his hospitality, but when the hour came for his appointed duties he would quietly arise and say, "I regret to leave you, but the hour has come for me to visit my sick sailors in the hospital, and I must go." His presence and smile, his cheery, comforting message, carried joy and strength to many sailor lads, sick and far away from home and friends. He soothed their brows and pointed them to the Savior in the dying hour, and commended their spirits to the God who gave them. He heard their messages to their loved ones far away over the sea, and sought with unremitting toil and care to send these messages to those who waited in vain for the homecoming of father and son. Any possessions of value, any tokens of love, he painstakingly endeavored to send to parents and relatives. Sometimes years would intervene before he was able to fulfill the dying requests of his sailor lads, but he never ceased to try. And in all this labor of love he had the hearty sympathy and unceasing co-operation of his noble wife. Her husband's work was her work. Together they attended the chapel services, she helping in song and speaking cheery words of love to those present. The value of the services of these devoted hearts to those "who go down to the sea in ships," only eternity will reveal. Dr. Lafferty has well said in the "Sketches," "When the sheaves are gathered, it will be found that this unobtrusive and faithful worker has won the right to sing the Harvest Home. Many a sailor on distant waters the world over blesses the name of the Bethel chaplain by the river Elizabeth in Virginia." And yet our dear brother was so modest and retiring that it was difficult to induce him to make a report of his work to the Annual Conference. He was content to answer to his name, and hear it said, "Nothing against him." He knew that the Master knew, and he was satisfied. Only once while I was his Presiding Elder was I enabled to persuade him when his name was called to make a report of his labors. But that modest, brief, but graphic, report was of thrilling interest to his brethren. They saw that he did not occupy the position of a sinecure, but a field of ardent toil and wonderful opportunities for doing good, and that his "labor had not been in vain in the Lord."

During his chaplainship of the Seamen's Bethel he established himself in a modest but comfortable home on Chapel Street in Norfolk. Here he delighted to receive his friends and to dispense a generous hospitality. The entertainment of his brethren in the ministry was to him a great joy. He was a delightful companion, and an interesting and instructive conversationalist. Here in this home his two sons grew to manhood, the joy and pride of his and the mother's heart. And here came to him the great sorrow of life. His son, Landon Lyon, died October 16, 1896, at the age of twenty-five, just as he had entered upon a promising career as a lawyer. Never was there a tenderer or more affectionate father. This arrow pierced the mother's heart, and she never recovered from the blow. But in this great sorrow there was resignation, and the Everlasting Arms did not fail them. Again our dear brother was plunged into deepest sorrow by the death of his wife, who had been his companion, comfort and stay for forty-one years. But the gospel which he had preached to others was the power of God to strengthen and comfort.

In 1911 our brother asked for the supernumerary relation, which relation he held at the time of death. But though in this relation, he was not idle; one year he served Fox Hill charge, and he was constantly responding to invitations to preach. He was a good preacher, sound and clear, succinct in statement, evangelical in spirit; he never tired his hearers, but instructed and inspired them. He preached much; no pulpit was vacant in the city of Norfolk when he was able to fill it. He was a favorite with the Presbyterians, and preached frequently in their churches. As his services at the Bethel were held at an hour that enabled him to attend the Sunday morning services elsewhere, he was in great demand. He never failed to respond to a call to preach when it was possible for him to accept the invitation.

In his declining years our dear brother was greatly comforted by his son, Rev. Daniel Tatum Merritt, and his wife who was to him a daughter indeed. His little grand-daughter was the joy of his life. The innocent prattle, her affectionate clinging to grandfather, brought continual sunshine to his heart. He spent much of his time in his son's home. His last days were made radiant with the affection of son and daughter and the love of a little child.

On the morning of June 11, 1915, he was suddenly stricken, the heart ceased to beat, and he passed without a struggle or groan to his great reward. The funeral services were held at Cumberland Street Church on Saturday, June 12th, at four o'clock p. m., conducted by Dr. J. A. Thomas, assisted by Dr. G. C. Kelly, Rev. J. T. Routten, chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel, and the writer of these lines. His precious dust was laid to rest in old Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg, Va., June 13th, at eleven o'clock in the morning. His son, the Rev. Daniel T. Merritt, a member of this Conference, does not mourn alone the loss of such a father, but the whole Virginia Conference sorrows that "we shall see his face no more."

REV. JOHN H. KABLER.

BY L. B. BETTY.

JOHN H. KABLER, son of Harvey and Nancy Smith Kabler, was born in Campbell County, Virginia, in June, 1842, and died at Oaklette July 13, 1915. His early educational advantages were limited. The war came on just at that time of life when he might have stored his mind, and he was called to arms in the defense of his country.

He entered the Confederate service in 1863, and remained at his post until the surrender at Appomattox Court House. He was wounded twice; once at the battle of Gettysburg, below the right hip, and again near the close, at Sailor's Creek, slightly in the right hand. His record as a soldier was above reproach, and he proved loyal and faithful to the end.

When about fourteen years old, under the ministry of Rev. J. D. Lumsden, at Wesleybury Church, Campbell circuit, he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. He had it in his heart as a duty to preach from the first of his Christian life, and even before. After his conversion he struggled much and long against the call, and after the close of the war he went to Kentucky and spent two years in Hardin County, and then moved to Spencer County. While there he opened his heart to the preacher of that circuit, Rev. W. T. Bentine, by whose aid he entered, in September, 1870, the Kentucky Wesleyan College, and spent two years at this institution. In June, 1873, he was licensed as a local preacher on Taylorsville circuit by Rev. T. N. Ralston, Presiding Elder of Shelbyville District, Kentucky Conference.

He was anxious to enter the itinerancy and to cast his lot with his native State. Therefore, in July, 1873, he returned to Virginia, and in the following November, at the session of the Virginia Conference, was admitted on trial and sent to Leesville Mission. This date marked his entrance upon his itinerant career, and for a period of forty-two years he never pushed in the ministry of the Word, and during that period he served with real and fidelity charges extending from the sea coast to the mount with zeal and fidelity charges extending from the sea-coast to the mountains. He felt the responsibility of the ministry, and endeavored to make full proof of that ministry. He knew and appreciated the gospel, and delighted to preach it; and preached it with simplicity, earnestness and effectiveness, and many were encouraged and helped in their Christian profession, and many souls were won by him as trophies for his gracious Lord, as the result of his faithful presentation of the unsearchable riches of the gospel.

Our brother identified himself with his pastoral charges, and manifested a genuine and deep interest in each one. He was an active and conscientious pastor, a true and brotherly man, and an ambassador for Christ who imbibed and exemplified His spirit and teachings. He was fortunate and happy in his domestic relations. He was married three times, and was greatly helped in his work by those who shared with him the demands and responsibilities of the itinerancy.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mattie Woodward, and by a son who resides in Richmond. Our glorified brother neared his end in peace and quiet. At the Conference of 1912 he retired from the active ministry, and for the past two years resided in his own home at Oaklette, in Norfolk county. His fatal sickness was brief. After suffering for a few days, with a consciousness of the presence of the Christ whose he was and whom he served, and without a semblance of a cloud in his spiritual sky, he passed from his earthly home into the "City which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

REV. THOMAS J. BAYTON.

BY J. E. DE SHAZO.

THOMAS JEFFERSON BAYTON, the subject of this sketch, was born in Norfolk county, Virginia, August 31, 1825, and was reared under the influence of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the city of Portsmouth, where his father was a pewholder. From this source he received, doubtless, his early religious impressions. With a few strokes of his facile pen, the inimitable Lafferty in his book of "Sketches" makes him a child of Providence. By this hand was he shielded through the dangers of a fatherless boyhood, till in his 'teens he found the Saviour and was enabled through Methodist influence and ministry, with which he found contact, rightly to interpret the meaning of the Divine voice. In his fifteenth year this influence, through the preaching of Rev. Gervase M. Keesee, then pastor of the Methodist Church in Portsmouth, in a gracious revival conducted by Dr. Leonidas Rosser, culminated in a distinct and clear-cut conversion. This brought him into the Methodist Church, in which he soon began to exercise himself as class-leader, an office which gave many a young man to the ministry of the gospel. In this service he began to realize the Divine hand drawing him out into the work. For a time he hesitated, but finally through the loving ministry of the Lord's servants, he grasped fully the meaning of God's call and yielded himself up to it for the ministry of the Church. In quick succession he was licensed to exhort, then to preach, and then, in November, 1846, at the Conference held at Randolph-Macon College, Boydton, Va., Bishop Capers presiding, he entered the traveling connection.

Of the early years of that itinerancy we know but little; the data are not available, but we may conjecture much. For a number of years his home was on horseback, living among the people, his saddlebags his wardrobe and bookcase, and his Bible, hymn-book and Discipline his library. By pine knots and tallow dips he learned the great truths of God's Word and the doctrines of Methodism, and he preached them with power and in demonstration of the Spirit.

Like the sainted Marvin, where and when he got his education nobody knows. But he got it, as did many a young Methodist preacher of his day, mainly on his knees with his Bible and his soul in the attitude of, "Speak, Lord, for Thy servant heareth." Truly "the meek will He guide in judgment, and the meek will He teach His way." He thus developed into a preacher of no mean ability. Tall, well-featured, with a commanding presence and pleasing delivery, he sent the gospel message home safe to many hearts. His footprints endure in the charges he served. Stafford, where he won the excellent lady, Miss Ellen Waller, who for years went at his side and who mothered his five daughters, four of whom yet survive; in Bowling Green, where he labored from 1875 till 1878; in East Norfolk, Chuckatuck, Northampton, Garysburg, Henrico, Cambridge, Harrellsville, he made full proof of his ministry. Souls were given him for his hire and seals to his ministry. In November, 1890, he was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, with the territory given over to that Conference. Here his health failed, and in the fall of 1891 he was transferred back to his home Conference, a superannuate, and there remained a superannuate by the will of God and the consent of his brethren until God called him on November 19, 1915, to his coronation. For a number of years of decline he made his home in Portsmouth in the haunts of his boyhood, with his daughter, Kate, for his ministering angel. During those years when the Conference came to the twin cities his tall, erect form, his comely and well-chiseled features, his brotherly presence, might be seen among us. We felt the pressure of his gentle hand-clasp, for, although reticent and timid almost to a fault, he was nevertheless cordial in his relations and amiable and trusting in his disposition. We shall miss him from among us, but he has only slipped away across the River and we know where to find him. Heaven will be more heavenly because he is there. After "life's fitful fever" and long-protracted itinerant service of threescore years less one, "he sleeps well."

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep!"

Many of his old comrades are nearing the brink of the River. They "brush the dews on Jordan's banks, the crossing must be near." "Our dying friends come o'er us like a cloud to 'bate that glare of life that often blinds the wise. Our dying friends are pioneers that smooth the rugged pass to death; are angels sent on errands full of love. For us they languish and for us they die."

Four daughters out of the five the Lord gave him for his heritage survive him—to mourn his death? No, "I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not even as others, which have no hope;" but to emulate the godly example he gave, to exemplify the virtues he illustrated in his life and sealed by his death. The daughters are: Miss Kate, of Merry Hill, N. C., already mentioned; Mrs. C. W. Fentress and Mrs. V. C. Matthews, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. J. A. Jernigan, of Washington, D. C. To these, if "the memory of the just is blessed," we offer the hand-clasp of our warm congratulations. As well in his long ministry as in the briefer one of his younger departed comrades,

"We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; In feelings, not in figures on a dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best. Life is but a means unto an end; that end Beginning, mean, and end to all things—God."

APPENDIX III.—REPORTS.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

REPORT NO. 1.

The beginning of the year now closing for your Board of Missions was bright mainly with the promises of God. The war had come and cut down the income of the General Board of Missions and appropriations had to be correspondingly decreased, and that in the face of such and so many wide open doors at home and abroad as the world never saw before. But thoughtful leaders said, "Tis a trying time, indeed, but, on that account, a time for effort and sacrifice, and we will do our best," and, judging from the reports of Conferences already held, these faithful friends of the Kingdom have kept their pledges, and while it is too early to be sure, it looks as if the final returns will show for the General Board of Missions the largest income of any year in its history.

But we pause to thank God for the past only that we may take courage for the future. There is much land to be possessed, and the Anakim are The world-wide Christian enterprise has been sustained hitherto at an annual cost of thirty-two millions of dollars. But one-half of that amount, carried by the Christian countries of Europe, has suddenly gone down in frightful collapse. France, England, Germany and Russia are not spending their money to spread the knowledge and influence of the Prince of Peace on earth, but have gone mad, and in a frenzy of fratricidal hate at each other's throats are spending their money to build battleships, bombs and artillery to kill and destroy each other from the face of the earth. At this moment in all the Christian world there is only one people left free to do the will of the King in caring for the Kingdom's immediate advance upon a wide-open heathen world. it not be, therefore, a pity-would it be less than a great moral tragedy and crime—if we, who are the sons and daughters of this high-favored America, should fail the King, at an hour when so many of the faithful are failing, or should falter on the threshold, or in the least measure ease down our end of the burden of a glorious world conquest? Surely Virginia, so long the premier missionary Conference of the connection, will continue to hold her crown; or, if she lose it, will let it go not lightly, but gladly yielding it to some Conference that through clearer vision and yet more earnest endeavor has fairly won it from her, and all to the greater glory of the King.

Your Board of Missions wishes to call your attention to the following points of policy, and to ask your hearty co-operation in the emphasis necessary to make the program proposed for the year effective.

1. First, we would name full payment upon the assessment. It was found at the last General Conference that the per capita Foreign Mission assessment upon the Church was more than thirty per cent. lower than it was thirty years before; and, furthermore, since nine-tenths of the churches and more are still working at the assessment as the ultimate and only goal of their missionary endeavor, in order to reach seventeen hundred thousand of our people, and bring them to share at all in the Church's missionary advance, it would be necessary to increase the missionary assessment. But since, after the increase, the per capita assessment is still more than twelve per cent. lower than it was in 1891, and since the Church, recognizing the reasonableness of this general advance, has accepted it everywhere with scarcely a word of complaint, we are confidently asking that pastors and lay-leaders in all the churches, by a definiteness and diligence more than usual, seek to secure every penny of the missionary assessment laid upon the congregation.

- 2. Next, is what we call the regular special; and it is this kind of special, or specific object inside the budget only, that we would recommend to the churches. The assessment will not take care of the work, and is frankly laid with the expectation that from one-third to one-half of the missionary work done by the Church will be done by congregations that, disregarding the twenty-five cents per capita minimum proposed in the assessment, and doing something because they want to, will take specials outside of the assessment. This plan of specials has been tried out in our Conference as in no other, and found uniformly effective. And so your attention is called for another year to Korea. Good tidings have come to us of returning revival interest; our great native leader, Yun Chi Ho, has been released from prison, and the door is wide open for a service of intercession and giving in behalf of that country that shall fulfill the prophecy of the best things that Virginia has done for Korea in the past. Some of our churches are not strong, and some of our people are poor, and to take a special for Korea in some congregations will mean a sacrifice; but service short of sacrifice in an hour like this is neither adequate nor worthy, and great as the sacrifice any Sunday-school or church might make to raise a special for Korea, that sacrifice could not possibly be as great as the need of the Korean people.
- 3. To the Epworth League has been assigned the responsibility of carrying the budget for Africa, and the work in that field has caught the imagination and called forth the interest of our young people as scarcely anything else ever did. Everywhere in the Leaguedom of our Church there has been this year a quickening of activity, beautifully seen in the annual gatherings of our young people, and in our own Conference within two years there has been a decided revival of interest in the general as well as missionary work of the League. We call the attention of League chapters to the Africa special, and urge pastors to guide the missionary activities of our young people, to encourage generous pledges with prompt and conscientious payment upon these pledges, and to foster a missionary policy for the League around the annual offering that in its development will make the League more and more what its leaders declare they would like it to become, a great missionary organism.

- 4. A comprehensive missionary policy for every Sunday-school. leader connected with one of the great missionary interdenominational organizations of this country, and thoroughly familiar with what the churches are doing in their Sunday-schools, gave it as his opinion, that in the matter of a missionary plan for the Sunday-school our Church is ahead of them all. There is no longer any option since the last General Conference, and every one of our seventeen thousand Sunday-schools is already, by virtue of its essential nature as the one educational institution of the Church, regarded as a missionary society. But to mobilize for missionary activity every school should have five things, viz.: a Missionary Committee, a Monthly Missionary Day, a Missionary Lesson for every quarter, a Missionary Program for Missionary Day, and a Special Missionary Offering. This year, by an agreement between the General Boards at Nashville-Mission and Sunday-school-Sunday-schools are asked to work especially for China. This, of course, does not mean that Sunday-schools will be excluded from other fields. It is preferred that Virginia Sunday-schools, interested already in Korea, will continue to work for Korea, remembering that working for Korea they are working also for China, and that schools working for China are also helping Korea; only, while the special offerings of Virginia Sunday-schools go mainly to Korea, they may mingle their prayers with other schools for China; and, furthermore, since it is provided in the plan for China that specials shall not count on the assessment, if Virginia would match the Conferences working in their Sunday-schools for China, she must take her specials for Korea over and above the assessment.
- A simultaneous every-member canvass. It would sound bald and mercenary, to say that in the missionary business at this moment money is worth more than the man; and while, of course, in the last analysis nothing can be as important as the man, yet what else does it mean, when we are told it is easier to get a man to go as a missionary to any of our mission fields than it is to get a church, or two churches, or ten, to give a thousand dollars to take care of him? Surely if there is an ultimate financial method, our leaders, ministerial and lay, should search and work to find it. The Every-member Canvass of which so much has been said has not succeeded oftener because it has not been oftener tried, and when tried has not had a fair trial. In all the denominations and in many churches it has been tried, and when preparation has been properly made for it the canvass has succeeded far beyond any old methods it substituted. It is hoped that this Board may agree with the Board of Lay Activities upon a time at what may seem the most favorable season, when on one Sunday, after at least a week of preparation on the part of the pastor with his committee, the Every-member Canvass shall be made in every congregation of the Conference, and every member given the opportunity of taking his worthy share in the world's immediate evangelization.
- 6. An aggressive home mission policy. It is not enough that the saved individual should keep himself saved and come safely to heaven, nor it is enough that he should by his service benefit his own church alone. There are other circles—the community, the nation, the world. In his thought and labor for the Kingdom the disciple of Christ must cross these boundaries, making his influence felt upon all the margins of moral, social and religious need. There is no class of the population that has not its claim upon him and no community for which he is not responsible, and his work at home is not done till, with his influence carried into every nook and cranny of its territory, this nation through and through has been made Christian. That means a service of the community, that whether you call it social service or do not name it at all, seeks to lift up society and make an environment in which it will be easier for the individual to be moral and Christian. But as the soul of all Christian service, social and religious, there must be still as from the beginning, the evangelistic interest that seeks the individual for himself, and seeks him that he may be personally and eternally saved. In our Conference as in the whole Church there has been a real stirring of Let us make next year a worthy fulfillment of this year's prophecy. Through our committees, Conference and District, by District movements, pastoral concert, lay deputations, and in every organized way, push the movement of soul-saving; but above all things let us seek to bring back into the Church and to us all, that Pentecostal passion for souls that will spring every Sunday-school, preacher, or layman, who knows Jesus Christ, and send him forth to find and save his man.

- 7. But it becomes more and more apparent that a program, however broad and promising, is a dead thing and will not live and work unless it be vitalized by the thought and initiative of personality. It is a time for courageous and skilled leadership, and your Board calls upon all those whose positions, by the terms of the Discipline, bring them into places of leadership—the lay-leader, Conference, District, charge and church, in that plan of lay-leadership, than which no Church has a better; the pastor, who after all occupies the place of largest influence and responsibility for the local congregation; and the Presiding Elder, the official above all others planned for connectional leadership—these all we call upon with confidence to render the grade of service, each in his place, that the times demand. Especially are we making our appeal this year to our Presiding Elders. In this Conference we have been fortunate in the spirit of men called to the office, and in the missionary service they have rendered. We ask their careful consideration of those passages in the Discipline connecting Presiding Elders with the Church's missionary policies, and urge that in their District Institutes, under the missionary question in the Quarterly Conference, in their visitation through Sundayschools, Epworth Leagues, and congregations, and in their intimate association with their preachers, they magnify their great office. Indeed, we ask that each Presiding Elder shall for one whole quarter, in this critical time of the world-wide Kingdom, place the emphasis of his preaching and work upon the Church's one great business of Missions, calling one whole three months of the year his Missionary Quarter.
- 8. Nor can personality alone do the big thing we are set to do, when that personality is merely human and not informed and endued by a power from on high. A great Christian leader has recently said that we are increasing our activities in the Church faster than we are multiplying our Christian experience, and that our organized machinery is outrunning far the dynamic of our spiritual disciplines. If that is true, as seems certain, we need all of us clearly to apprehend that, fundamental to all deficiencies is this failure, and that we need to come back in our prayer life to the old and only way of power in the Church. After all what can our sixty-five missionaries in China do to influence and transform eight million heathen among whom they are working? What possible show of success have our six missionaries in Central Africa, who face a hundred and thirty millions of native people so backward that eighty millions have not even an alphabet? And on the home-base, when with all our five hundred millions annual income, and thirty-seven millions unpaid tithe, it is easier to get men and women to go than it is to get money to send them- nothing can be surer than that our task at home and abroad is beyond the reach and strength of any merely human arm, and this impossible thing we are set to do we shall never accomplish until we can move mightily in its behalf an arm of Almighty Power. In the great congregation, in the service of public prayer, in societies, prayer and smaller group meetings, in those inner circles in which men and women are drawn by a common thought and purpose and by a great common need, let us this year as never before, by placing our chief emphasis upon prayer, put to the test the exceeding great and precious promises of God.

REPORT NO. 2.

The growth of the missionary spirit in the Virginia Conference during the last few years has been the most marked characteristic of our Conference. This enlarged interest to bear our share in making Christ known to the ends of the earth, is true of the rural territory as well as our city work. The leadership of Brother T. S. Southgate among the laymen, the steady and wise work of the missionaries, and the co-operation of pastors and Presiding Elders in this greatest enterprise of the Church, have given the Virginia Conference the place of leadership in Southern Methodism. We are rejoiced to be able to report that our Conference Board of Lay Activities, the Joint Board of Finance, and our Conference Board of Missions unanimously and heartily agree on the following recommendations to this Conference:

- 1. We recommend and urge that every church in our Conference make an Every-member Canvass as the best method of financing the claims of the Church at home and needs abroad.
- 2. We believe that the Budget System ought to be adopted in all our charges—that this is the efficient way to solve the financial problems of our churches. We, therefore, recommend the Budget System for this Conference.

3. We recommend that, as early after Conference as possible, the Every-member Canvass be made, and that hereafter October be fixed as the best month, all things considered, for our Conference to make the annual "Every-Member Canvass" for the needs of the coming year.

W. B. BEAUCHAMP,

W. W. ROYALL, Secretary.

President.

REPORT NO. 3.

The Board of Missions of the Virginia Conference requests the presiding Bishop to make the following appointments: Thos. N. Potts, to be Conference Secretary of Missions; E. K. Odell, to be Conference Evangelist; and J. W. Dixon, to be Superintendent of the Richmond City Mission.

W. B. BEAUCHAMP,

W. W. ROYALL, Secretary.

President.

REPORT NO. 4.

We call the attention of the Conference to the School of Missions in the Candler School of Theology, of Emory University. Recently this School has been organized as a department of the new School of Theology, and our own Dr. W. J. Young called to direct the work. This is the largest and most promising thing for missionary training that our Church has attempted; and indeed a School of Missions is rare among the methods of our denominations. We, therefore, hail with great satisfaction the founding of this School, and urge that wherever possible our young preachers and all candidates for the ministry avail themselves of the advantages of the course of missionary preparation, by going as students to the Candler School of Theology.

In the line of evangelism, we recommend that all our pastors, as far as practicable, assist in the conduct of at least one revival meeting on some charge other than their own, whose pastor may desire such service; and we recommend that in each case a free-will offering be taken for the pastor so assisting. We respectfully request all pastors offering themselves for such evangelistic service, to furnish their names to the President of the Board of Missions, to be published by him in our Conference organ.

We close the work of the year with devout thanksgiving to the God of all grace, for the success that has crowned the work of the Board and its helpers.

The assessments for the incoming year are as follows:

For Foreign Missions	$28,700
For Home Missions	9,184
For Conference Missions	28,000

And we request Dr. Thos. N. Potts, our Conference Secretary of Missions, to raise a special of $1,000 for the work at Hopewell.

We append the list of appropriations for the incoming year.

W. B. BEAUCHAMP,

W. W. ROYALL, Secretary.

President.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES.

In our report to the Conference of 1914 the following statement occurred, viz:

"After an experience of several years and the result of personal contact with almost every charge in the Conference, we are convinced that the desultory and unsystematic method of providing the means necessary for the conduct of the churches, including pastors' support, in a large portion of our rural territory especially, is crippling in the extreme, and to our minds one of the greatest stumbling-blocks in the life and progress of the Church as a whole. In fact, in the solution of this problem, we believe, lies the key to many of the difficulties which confront the Church today."

An added year of intimate contact with the work throughout the ten Districts of the Conference has only served to confirm more fully, if possible, the assertions set forth in that report. This being true, our efforts have been largely put forth in this direction, and, as a result, we rejoice to say that between sixty and seventy charges of the Conference have fallen in line with our recommendations, and are outspoken in their approval of the remarkable results obtained through the application of the "Budget" system provided for by the "Every Member Canvass" and envelope system.

The churches above referred to are scattered throughout all the Districts, which proves the plan to be practical, notwithstanding the fact that it may be more difficult to accomplish it in some sections than in others.

Several of our meetings during this session of the Conference have been held jointly with the Board of Missions in a thorough discussion of these methods, looking to the consummation of an effort to make the system Conference-wide; and, as a result of same, we have concurred with them in a strong joint resolution fully covering the subject, which will be presented to the Conference by them; the resolution in question having also been submitted and approved by the Joint Board of Finance.

With respect to the raising of the three committees on Missions, Social Service and Evangelism in each church, as now contemplated, your Board has given much thought and attention to the practical working out of this problem, especially in many of the rural or smaller churches, and are convinced, and recommend, that for the present Presiding Elders and pastors endeavor to have appointed in every charge or station one strong committee, and assign to them the duty of covering all three divisions of the work until greater and deeper interests and new appreciations of stewardship are developed among a larger number of laymen than now generally exists.

Your Board has spent much of its time during the present session considering ways and means of raising the standard of and generally improving the basis of ministerial support, and feels that after the trying out of its plans during the coming year it will have a gratifying report to make in regard to this part of its work at the next Conference.

T. S. SOUTHGATE, Chairman.

G. I. McALLEN, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

REPORT NO. 1.

The Board of Church Extension of the Virginia Annual Conference respectfully submits the following report:

The amount of money raised by this Conference for Church Extension is larger this year than ever before. But, while this is true, the demands upon the Board have never been so great, nor apparently more pressing than they are now. We seriously needed twice as much money as we could command. Worthy and important applications had to be either deferred or largely scaled.

We received, from various charges, this year the sum of	$13,219	74
Interest on money in hands of Treasurer	54	00
Balance in the hands of the Treasurer	56	57

Total received$13,330 31

The above amount was distributed as follows:

We received and carefully considered twenty applications from churches asking that we donate them $7,200.00. There were five applications from parsonages asking for $1,350.00. In all, the applications asked the donation of $8,550.00.

The Board made the following donations:

The total amount now in the Loan Fund is $10,042.99. Of the above sum $7,997.71 is loaned out, leaving $2,045.28 subject to loan. In recognition of the great importance of this fund, we offer the following resolutions:

First, we heartily endorse the proposition of the General Board for a Loan Fund Day throughout the bounds of our Church, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with the Special Committee in making it a success.

Second, our preachers and churches are urged to fall in line with the whole Church in giving the day designated to the interests of Church Extension, affording the people an opportunity to make contributions in cash or subscription, all cash received to be remitted to the general office at Louisville, Ky., and all subscriptions taken, with the amount subscribed and address, sent to the same place.

Third, we recommend that contributions not otherwise directed within the bounds of this Conference become a part of the Conference Board Loan Fund, which fund is administered by the Board in the interest of church and parsonage building within the bounds of the Conference, through the general office at Louisville, Ky. We recommend also that the amount contributed by the Sunday-schools of this Conference be added to the Sunday-school Loan Fund.

Fourth, we urge our Presiding Elders, preachers, lay-leaders, Sunday-school superintendents and Epworth League officers to keep this matter before the people, and to so plan that they may be informed on the subject and given an opportunity to make a contribution to the Loan Fund capital of the Board of Church Extension.

Fifth, we make mention of the fact, for the information of all concerned, that the general office at Louisville, Ky., will provide, free of charge, literature, charts, etc., for educational purposes, subscription blanks, and all other necessary printed matter for the proper observance of the day.

In order to quicken the interest of the Church in Church Extension, there will be a great representative meeting in Louisville, Ky., at the next meeting of the General Board. The Board elected, as representatives of this body, C. W. Hardwicke, A. C. Berryman, E. Frank Storey and N. B. Foushee.

A lawyer's abstract of title should accompany all applications. All applications to this Board should be in the hands of the secretary by November 1st; to the General Board, by March 1st.

CHAS. W. HARDWICKE, President.

W. J. TWILLEY, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2.

We have considered the resolution referred to this Board in regard to the ten thousand dollars to be raised for the benefit of the Washington Representative Church, and respectfully refer the matter to the Joint Board of Finance, to make the apportionment as required by the resolution in three annual installments.

CHAS. W. HARDWICKE, President.

W. J. TWILLEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT.

The statistical report will show the condition of our institutions of learning. The improvements planned for the year have been steadily going forward. Substantial collections have been made on the endowment for Randolph-Macon College; the wing to Randolph-Macon Academy at Bedford has been completed, and Blackstone Junior College has been successfully started upon its career.

An important movement by the various denominational education boards in the United States is preparation for a general educational campaign throughout the country for arousing interest in Christian education next year in commemoration of the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of the Reformation, started October 31, 1516, in the University of Wittenberg, by Luther's nailing the ninety-five theses to the door of the castle church. No more fitting time could be selected for arousing the interest of Christian people in their educational institutions.

Another movement in our State is the increased activity of public sentiment with reference to the country school and the country church. Our Church, being a Church of the people, is vitally interested in this matter. Not until the Church realizes how important the school is to its development, and not until it makes it one of its chief concerns to see that the country school is properly equipped, has eight or nine months terms, has well trained teachers, will our Church be able to do the work for the Master that it should do. The constant changes necessitated by our system prevent our ministers from doing for the home school what they might otherwise do, but more could be done if they were to see the essential connection between the school and the Church. We must not let the school become the rival of the Church in building up our country communities. We have already given over to the State too much of the work of the Church.

Another movement that vitally concerns us is the one for having the Bible taught and religious instruction given in connection with the public schools. Various organizations have passed resolutions on this subject, and your attention is called to the resolutions to be brought to you from the Board of Education.

While emphasizing this movement for introducing the Bible into the public schools, yet the Church must not forget that the Bible will not hold its proper place in the life of our people until it is put into its proper place in the home. No amount of religious instruction in the schools will supersede that of the father and mother. It is to be hoped that among the many revivals and campaigns which the churches are undertaking, there may be a campaign for a revival of religious instruction in the home.

One of the most serious problems before our Church is, how to secure an educated ministry. At least we should be in position to offer our ministerial students who are striving to get an education as much help as other churches are offering them. We are constantly losing promising men because we are not able to offer them sufficient aid in securing an education. Other Conferences in our connection have adopted the method to remedy this difficulty which your Board of Education proposes for your adoption.

Perhaps never before in the history of the world was there a greater feeling of need for the religion of Christ. The world has been taught by an awful object lesson that efficiency, the god of the idolatry of this age, is not sufficient to hold man back from the worst of his besetting sins; and if those who believe in Christian education will but rise to the occasion, the Church will be better enabled to lead the world along the straight and narrow path pointed out by our Master.

R. E. BLACKWELL, President.

RESOLUTIONS AND STATISTICS.

1. Resolved, That we rejoice at the continued prosperity of our schools and colleges. We pledge ourselves anew as a Conference to work for the advancement of these institutions, which were founded by the Church and have been brought to their present state of power and efficiency by the devotion and loyalty of our preachers and laymen. We urge all of our people to send their sons and daughters to our Conference schools and colleges; namely, Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia; Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Virginia; Blackstone College for Girls, Blackstone, Virginia; Randolph-Macon Academy, Bedford City, Virginia, and Randolph-Macon Institute, Danville, Virginia.

2. Resolved, That your Board commends to the liberality of our people the Ferrum Training School for poor boys and girls, and we hereby request the General Board of Education of our Church to continue the appropriation of $1,000 to this school for the coming year.

priation of $1,000 to this school for the coming year.

- 3. Resolved, That we have heard with great interest the statement sent to the Conference by the Educational Commission. We are gratified to learn that the work of the Commission has been attended with such phenomenal success. The organization of Emory University at Atlanta, with assets in grounds, buildings and endowment amounting in value to $2,500,000, in little more than one year, and of Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas, with assets of $2,000,000, within three years, is a work unprecedented in the history of our Church, and greatly rejoices those who believe that the Church must and can own, control, and maintain successfully, schools and colleges and universities for the training of our young life under positive clearly-defined Christian influences. We are especially gratified to hear that the Candler School of Theology has begun its second session with a largely increased enrollment, and we pledge our hearty co-operation in the development of this necessary work.
- 4. Resolved, That your Board of Education recommends that the nomination by the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College of Mr. J. T. Catlin to fill the vacancy on the said Board occasioned by the death of Mr. Jno. P. Branch, be and is hereby confirmed by the Conference.
- 5. Resolved, That we again urge our undergraduates to take advantage of the opportunities offered for instruction by the Correspondence School under the direction of Dr. R. H. Bennett, an honored member of this body.
- 6. Resolved, That President R. E. Blackwell, President W. A. Webb, and President James Cannon, Jr., are hereby appointed a Commission to confer with the Virginia State Board of Education, in order that if possible some basis of agreement may be reached by which there may be genuine cooperation between the work done in the Sunday-schools and in the public schools of the State; and, furthermore, to plan for better provision for the religious development of students in State institutions by such means as may be adapted to our Virginia conditions.
- 7. Resolved, That the Joint Board of Finance is hereby instructed to apportion $5,453.00 to meet the assessment for education laid by the General Conference; $12,000 for the benefit of Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia, and $2,500.00 for Ministerial Training, the amount collected to be divided pro rata for the three causes named. The amount collected for Ministerial Training is to be paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education, by whom twenty per cent. of the same shall be forwarded to the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Atlanta, Ga., and the remaining eighty per cent. shall be used by the Conference Board of Education to assist in the training of young men for the ministry of our Church in accordance with such regulations as that Board may determine.
- 8. Resolved, That whenever collections ordered by the Annual Conference are taken together, the amounts contributed to the objects included in the collections so taken shall be divided pro rata between the objects presented.
- 9. Resolved, That the Thursday before the fourth Sunday in February is hereby designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges, and our pastors are requested to preach the sermon on Christian Education, required by the Discipline, on the fourth Sunday in February.
- 10. Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Annual Conference is hereby instructed to pay out of the Annual Conference Expense Fund to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education $150.00 for the expenses of the Board of Education for the ensuing year.
- 11. Resolved, That we cordially commend the work of the Co-operative Education Association of Virginia, and assure those in charge of this Community Improvement Work that we will co-operate with them whenever opportunity will permit.

12. Resolved, That we request the Presiding Bishop to appoint E. H. Rowe as President of Southern Seminary, Buena Vista, Virginia; S. C. Hatcher as Vice-President and Secretary and Treasurer of Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia; James Cannon, Jr., as President of Blackstone College for Girls, Blackstone, Virginia, and as Superintendent of the Southern Assembly at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina; W. J. Young and W. A. Smart as professors in the Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, Georgia; B. M. Beckham as Principal of Ferrum Training School, Ferrum, Virginia; David S. Walker as professor in Ferrum Training School, Ferrum, Virginia; Bart D. Stephens as student in Princeton Theological Seminary; C. T. Harrell as student in Randolph-Macon College; B. S. Via, O. L. Gilliam and J. E. Avery, Jr., as students in Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, Georgia; and W. R. Proctor as special representative of Ferrum Training School.

EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS.

The educational statistics for the year ending June, 1915, are as follows:

Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Va.: present chief officer, R. E. Blackwell, President; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $150,000; endowment, $400,000; officers and teachers, 24; students, 198.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va.: present chief officer, W. A. Webb, President; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $460,000; endowment, $382,000; officers and teachers, 56; students, 610.

Blackstone College for Girls, Blackstone, Va.: present chief officer, James Cannon, Jr., President; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $160,000; officers and teachers, 32; students, 427.

Ferrum Training School, Ferrum, Va.: present chief officer, B. M. Beckham, Principal; value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $30,000; officers and teachers, 6; students, 99.

Total value of grounds, buildings and appliances, $1,035,000; endowment, $782,000; officers and teachers, 161; students of collegiate grade, 808; students of sub-collegiate grade, 987. Total number of students, 1,795.

JAMES CANNON, JR., Secretary.

FERRUM TRAINING SCHOOL.

Dear Fathers and Brethren,—I am very glad indeed to be able to make you a report of conditions at your school that call for thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, who has not withheld from us His abundant blessing, and to whom we give all glory and honor for what He has enabled us to accomplish.

ATTENDANCE.

Last year, our first, we opened school with 66 students, this year with 86. Last year we opened with 31 in the boarding department, 19 girls and 12 boys, this year with 61 in the boarding department, 34 girls and 27 boys, an increase of 15 girls and 15 boys.

At this date we have 98 pupils enrolled, of whom 30 are day pupils and 68 are boarders, the boarders being made up of 31 boys and 37 girls. We have already enrolled as many pupils, lacking one, as we enrolled the whole of last session, and judging from our experience of last year they will continue to come in until a few weeks before school closes. It is likely that we will enroll this year 130 or more pupils, but the number will not be as large as it would be if we had more room for boys. There is but one bed left in the boys' department and there are three boys already applying for that. We will be compelled hereafter to decline to receive any more boys this session, though they will continue to apply for months to come.

FACULTY.

All of our teachers have taken the greatest interest in the work and all who taught last year, except Miss Sutherland and Mrs. Hardy, both of whom worked without salary, have returned for this year, and are doing even better work than last year because of the advantage gained by experience.

The Executive Committee was very fortunate indeed in securing the services of Rev. D. S. Walker, of Lynchburg, Va., as teacher of Bible and advanced classes in the High School. Mr. Walker is a Bachelor of Arts and will take the degree of Bachelor of Divinity at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., in December. He attended Vanderbilt University before the separation of that institution from the Church, and spent last summer at Chicago University. I have known him for many years, and can conscientiously commend him as one of the finest young men I have ever known. He gave up a position in a bank that paid him a good salary to study for the ministry, and has spent all he had and many years in making preparation for his life's work, and feels peculiarly called to the kind of work we are doing.

At its recent session in Danville the Board of Trustees decided to send Rev. H. P. Anker, pastor of Sledd Memorial Church, Danville, to the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, that he may take a course in Agriculture, with a view to teaching that subject at Ferrum, and managing the farm. Mr. Anker is a degree graduate of a first-grade college and a graduate of Vanderbilt in the theological department, and is said by Doctor Tillett to have been one of the brightest students that have ever attended that institution.

In place of Mrs. W. P. Hardy, we have Mrs. Addie V. Neblett, of Stony Creek, Va., as housekeeper, and she is rendering us the most efficient and acceptable service, for which she receives nothing in the way of compensation, except our gratitude and affection. She is a cultured Christian lady, and does a great amount of work for the school.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Our course of study corresponds very nearly with that of the best high schools in the State, except that we have raised the course one year above that of the high schools, in order to conform to the requirements of the College Entrance Examination Committee of New York, and also of the Board of Education of our own Church. We give the same instruction in our first year of high school that the State schools give in their second year, and we have pupils this year in both first and second years of high school work as we give it.

In view of the fact that we had so few last year in the primary department, and that the public school in the community seemed to supply the demand very largely for work of that kind, the Executive Committee thought best not to do any primary work this year, nor until conditions seemed to demand it. Our work begins with the 5th grade, or first grammar grade.

We are also giving a special course in Bible study, using as text-book, besides the Bible itself, a little volume by Dr. H. M. Hamill, called "The Bible and its Books." Every day at twelve o'clock the whole school gathers in the auditorium, including the teachers, and under the direction of the Principal engages in singing, Scripture reading in concert and prayer, after which we study the Bible and our text-book systematically, using the blackboards freely, and giving monthly tests. We are drilling our pupils thoroughly and systematically in Bible study, with the especial thought in mind of fitting them to be workers and teachers in our rural Sunday-schools.

Our department of music, under the skillful direction of Miss Susie H. Trent, of Washington, D. C., is flourishing. She has 25 pupils at this time, who pay $20.00 per session each for instruction. This department will more than pay its way this year, and will leave a balance to the credit of the school. Two of the girls volunteered to suggest that they would like to wash all the dining room linen as compensation for instruction in music, and this was done.

We will give a short course in Agriculture this year, and will largely develop this department as soon as Mr. Anker has finished his course at V. P. I., and comes to Ferrum, which he will do in time certainly by the opening of the session of 1916-'17.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

We made an effort during the year to find an experienced and well-equipped teacher of domestic science, who could also keep house and give the girls practical experience in cooking in connection with our culinary department, but without success. We are still trying to find such a person. But we require two girls to be on duty in the kitchen for a week at a time, giving them training under the instruction of Mrs. Neblett, who is a skillful and accomplished housekeeper, though never having studied the subject technically. Our brief experience has demonstrated the great importance of this part of our work, impressing among other things the importance of washing the hands and sifting the flour before making up the bread, which things are not considered necessary by some whom we are training. This course does not interfere with the school duties, or class-room work, of the pupils.

Five of our girls devote their time for work to making light bread daily for the school, and hot rolls are served for supper every night, and cold light bread for dinner, with a variation to some other kind of bread for breakfast. This not only supplies the table with a wholesome and nutritious food in the way of bread, but also greatly reduces the expense by saving the more expensive ingredients that go into biscuit. Our girls wait on the table, wash the dishes, and clean the entire building of forty-six rooms, and keep it in a very neat and attractive condition. We have no idlers. Everybody works at Ferrum.

BUILDINGS.

During the summer the girls' dormitory was completed, as the result of the efforts of Mr. J. P. Pettyjohn, of Lynchburg, Va., one of our most faithful and efficient trustees. He raised by subscription in Lynchburg the sum of five thousand dollars, with which this addition was made. The addition consists of twelve bedrooms and an auditorium, which latter has been an indescribable comfort and help to us in our work. It is used not only as an auditorium, but also as our principal class room, and as a study hall for the boys. It is fitted up with fifty single steel desks, besides a number of chairs, and plenty of blackboards, and is roomy and bright, and adds more to the efficiency of our work than any other one thing could have done. Mr. Pettyjohn has met every dollar of this expense.

When the trustees met at Ferrum in June they realized that we must either decline to receive boys for the next session or else make provision for them outside of the girls' dormitory, where all our work was done last year, and so they agreed to erect a two-story frame building of eight rooms for the use of boys. About the time it was completed the Principal was authorized to occupy it as a residence, and give the building formerly occupied by him, consisting of nine rooms, to the boys to be used as a dormitory, and this was done. This building was filled at once, and still the boys want to come.

I was instructed by the Board of Trustees to build a small house for storing fruit and vegetables for winter use. I succeeded in getting a plan of the very kind I wanted from the department of agriculture of British Columbia, Canada, and have put up a building fifteen feet wide by thirty feet long that will take care of our needs for some time to come. It is built with a twelve-inch concrete wall and a four-inch sawdust wall all in one, and has a thorough system of ventilation. Over it we have built a cannery, where we will put up such fruits and vegetables as we cannot keep in the storage house, and we think that with the aid of both of these additions to our equipment, we can live largely at home, making our supply of such things on the farm, as far as we can.

We have also built a small granary, and lined it with wire, so as to keep out rats and mice. The saving of grain will soon pay for the small expense of the wire. During the year we have also put up a pump and a tank, which we will use when the water gets low in our mountain spring, as it sometimes does in long spells of dry weather. We have built about four thousand yards of woven wire fence, cutting most of the locust posts on our farm, and the boys doing most of the work of digging the holes and putting up the posts and wire.

THE FARM.

In January the Executive Committee bought a farm adjoining us, consisting of 96 acres, which the churches of Danville will pay for at the cost of $1,728.00. This gives us 226 acres in all, and gives us an opportunity to offer the boys a chance to work their way through school, and will also prove to be a valuable means of support. We are improving it by removing stones and other rubbish, grubbing, ditching, fencing, doing deep plowing, planting and spraying fruit trees, and transplanting shade trees, which we find in abundance on the farm, planting the land-improving crops known as legumes, and by rotating crops and raising grass and stock. Our crop this year will probably not yield as much as the work done on the farm will cost, but it will bring in a good deal more than it cost to produce. Our corn alone will be worth over five hundred dollars, besides the rough feed that comes to us from the corn as a by-product, and the several tons of hay that we have made. We found the farm much run down by being badly worked, and in many ways exhausted and neglected, but it is entirely susceptible of improvement, and I think it will, in a short time, yield us a gratifying profit. We have three horses and more than twenty cows and calves.

OUR NEEDS.

This year a score or more of boys have written me and expressed a desire and purpose to work their way through school, but I have been compelled to tell them in perfect candor that the only work we had to offer was work on the farm, and that a boy must work at least five hours every day during the winter out of doors in order to make up 125 hours a month and receive credit for $12.50, which is the amount we charge. This very naturally discourages the boy, for there is so much bad weather during the winter months that out-door work is impossible. I requested the Board of Trustees to appoint a committee to look into the matter of building some sort of a factory that would give boys, and girls too, if possible, an opportunity for working their way through school without being exposed to the rigors of winter in out-of-door work, and this was done.

We can multiply the number of our students very greatly if some such plan as this can be devised, for there are many who are eager to work their way through.

Last year we had ten scholarships of $100.00 each, and helped twelve students through school by this means. This year we have twenty-three scholarships, and are assisting that many students through school who could not possibly otherwise come at all. If it is made possible for students to work their way through school, we will be compelled to make larger provision for the boys, or else turn an ever-increasing number away, and this will be true indeed whether self-support is made possible or not.

We have all the space we will likely need for girls for some time to come, especially if we erect a school building proper, and take our school work out of the girls' dormitory, but we must either build a large dormitory like the one we have for girls, to be used exclusively for boys, or else build several smaller ones, as the Board may deem best.

The Principal has spoken in our churches usually during the winter twice and during the summer three times on Sundays, and has raised about seven thousand dollars, chiefly in small amounts. He has also managed the farm, as well as all the business of the school, including the correspondence, which has been very heavy, the bookkeeping, and the superintending of all the building except the addition to the large building, which was let out to contract. He is business manager and teacher as well, conducting classes in algebra and Bible. God has been exceedingly good to us, and we thank Him and take courage, looking hopefully to a future that seems full of promise.

The land we own cost us $5,200.00. The buildings on it and all improvements have cost us about $30,000.00. We have an investment, therefore, representing something over $30,000.00, but the land has very greatly increased in value since we bought it, and will continue to so increase. Our holdings represent a property value of $35,000.00 at least.

B. M. BECKHAM, Principal.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday-school Board respectfully submits the following report: We call your attention to the following matters of importance regarding our general Sunday-school work.

- 1. The day of graded Sunday-schools and of graded Sunday-school literature is well advanced, and for the first time in our history the increase in the circulation of our graded literature has exceeded that of the uniform literature.
- 2. The Workers' Council, our new magazine of Sunday-school methods, is to be enlarged to meet more fully the needs in the field of Sunday-school methods and organization, and The Sunday-school Magazine is henceforth to be given up altogether to Bible study and to the study of the broad principles of education. The Missionary Messenger is to be discontinued as a separate publication and is to be incorporated as a monthly missionary program in The Workers' Council.
- 3. We call attention to the joint resolution of the Board of Missions and of the General Sunday-school Board, recommending China as the field for the special attention of the Sunday-schools during the coming year. We desire this Conference to know that provision has been made for two courses of lessons on China, of one quarter's length each; one for the adult and senior grades, and the other for the intermediate grades.

- 4. We call attention to the new course in teacher training, now being prepared, and urge every Sunday-school in the Conference to organize at least one class for the training of teachers and other Sunday-school workers. And we also urge that all such classes be reported to the Superintendent of the Department of Teacher Training, in Nashville.
- 5. We urge our Sunday-schools to form Wesley Bible Classes and to report the same to the Superintendent of the Wesley Bible Class Department, in Nashville. The Church provides for reporting only those classes that have enrolled in the Wesley Bible Class Department.
- 6. We call attention to the action of the General Sunday-school Board recommending that the pastors and superintendents of all our Sunday-schools set apart the Sunday preceding Easter for the observance of "Decision Day," or "Commitment Day," and that wherever practicable such day be held at the end of each quarter.
- 7. We wish to lay special emphasis upon the fact that our General Sunday-school Board, under the enlarged provision made by the last General Conference for Sunday-school advancement, has entered upon a campaign that looks to lifting the whole Church to a new vision of her responsibility for religious education through the Sunday-school and to a new plane of Sunday-school efficiency. The plan calls for an adequate corps of men in the field, both secretaries of the General Board and Conference secretaries; for a thorough organization of the Sunday-school forces in all of the Annual Conferences, and through the Annual Conferences for the organization of every Presiding Elder's District in the Church, to the end that summer schools, schools of method, institutes and conferences may be held throughout the Church, and that from our great city churches to our most remote rural charges everywhere in our connection, our pastors and superintendents, teachers and workers in the Sunday-school, may be made to see, not only the greatness of the Sundayschool as it is, but the greater territory that is still unoccupied. They must be led to see the marvellous opportunity and task of religious education that God has in this day thrust upon the Sunday-school. And further, having seen through the training conferences and courses of training and study for teachers and officers and parents and pastors, they must be stimulated and assisted in every way possible in preparation for a more worthy and efficient accomplishment of the Church's great task of religious education through the Sunday-school.

We further call your attention to the fact that in the development of this plan of the General Board, six divisional field secretaries have been appointed for the Church in America, and a secretary for the China Mission Conference, and two field workers at large.

If these plans of the General Board, that give so much promise of a new Sunday-school day in our Methodism, are to be effective in reaching the whole Church as designed, and are not to result merely in an occasional visit of our divisional secretaries here and there in the vast territory under their charge, then the Annual Conferences must respond to what is really a challenge of the General Board, and provide an adequate organization through which all the Sunday-schools of all the Conferences may be reached.

To this challenge your Board unanimously and earnestly begs this Conference to respond. We express the conviction that while our Church has none too soon provided for this much-needed field campaign in which many other great denominations are already going ahead of us, this Conference has failed to keep pace with the front rank of the Sunday-school work even in our own denomination. We do not believe that the Virginia Conference will, from any point of view, consent longer to remain in this position. All the interests of the Kingdom are at stake in this matter, and we must advance or be recreant in our duty to the highest interests with which we are charged.

We therefore submit the following as the general policy and plan for our Sunday-school work in the Virginia Conference in accordance with the policy of the General Board:

First: That we invite Brother J. M. Way, our Field Secretary for the Atlantic Division, to meet with the Virginia Conference Sunday-school Board in any of its meetings, and that we invite his assistance in our Conference work and pledge him our hearty sympathy and co-operation as a general field secretary for this division.

Second: That a District organization be effected in all the Districts, according to the following plan: There shall be appointed a president of the District organization, and a District secretary-treasurer, and a department superintendent for each of the following departments: Elementary, Home, Teacher-Training, and Wesley Bible Classes. There shall also be an executive committee, of five or seven members, composed as follows: Presiding Elder, ex-officio chairman, members of the Conference Board residing within the District, the president of the District organization, the secretary-treasurer, and others if desirable.

Third: This organization shall be brought about as follows: After consultation with the Presiding Elder and the members of the Annual Conference Board within the District, and any others, this Board, or its executive committee in the interim, shall elect the president of the District organization and the District secretary-treasurer, and any other members of the executive committee of the District organization. This executive committee shall then complete the District organization, and shall make report of the same to the chairman of the Conference Sunday-school Board.

Fourth: That with reference to meetings, institutes, etc., in the Virginia Conference, the following plan be adopted:

- (a) A meeting of this Board early in the Conference year;
- (b) An annual institute in each District;

- (c) Special institutes conducted by flying squadrons;
- (d) Special meetings at strategic points;
- (e) Provision for strong representation of our Sunday-school interest at the Annual Conference session; also for institutes, round tables, and like meetings, at that time;
- (f) Encouragement of our educational institutions to give special training to students for teaching and leadership in our Sunday-schools, and the provision wherever practicable in such institutions for Sunday-school institutes.

Fifth: That we give support to the organization of our Sunday-schools according to the Standard of Efficiency established by the General Sunday-school Board.

Sixth: With reference to the matter of a Conference Secretary, that the Conference Sunday-school Board acting under the provision of the Discipline, Par. 258, commit itself definitely to the policy of a Conference Sunday-school Secretary, provided that such employment shall not be made until there is adequate assurance that obligations so incurred can be met by this Board.

Seventh: In order to make financial provision to carry out the requirements of this policy we urge that the Children's Day offering be stimulated with the hope of raising adequate funds from this source to meet the needs of the Board; that we authorize the chairman of the Board to take such steps as may be necessary to press the obligation of the Children's Day exercise and collection upon every Sunday-school of the Conference, to the end that the largest possible returns may be had from this source. Further, that we request the executive committee to make a careful study of the possibilities of income from this source and make report at the next session of this Conference, in order that an accurate basis may be had for estimating the resources available, and in providing for the resources needed in the prosecution of the great work of your Conference Sunday-school Board.

Eighth: In the matter of the employment of a field secretary for this Conference year, that your Board authorize its executive committee to employ Brother N. C. Scott as acting, or temporary, field secretary, to give a portion of his time to field work until it may be possible to employ a permanent secretary for full time; that the Board further authorize its executive committee to employ a permanent secretary when he may be secured, and when the finances of the Board under the present provision make it possible.

Respectfully submitted,

E. T. DADMUN, Chairman,

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The outlook for the League is very encouraging. During the year 1914 thirty conventions and assemblies were held. A number of choice young men and women in the Leagues have volunteered for special work in home and foreign mission fields. The records of the central office show an issue of nearly ten new charters a week. The Epworth Era has a larger circulation than ever before, and the finances to meet the needs of the central office are more satisfactory. The Leagues contributed last year for all purposes in round numbers one hundred and three thousand dollars. Of this seventeen thousand was for missionary specials and eleven thousand for assessment on missions. In Virginia the League has taken on new life. In 1914 a Conference Epworth League was organized at the convention which met in Clay Street Church, Richmond, and R. B. Proctor, of Richmond, was elected president. This young people's organization has been very active and enthusiastic and has greatly assisted your Annual Conference Board. Last summer a very successful convention was held in Trinity Church, Newport News. There were about sixty delegates present, and the spiritual tone of the convention was marvelous. At the last service of the convention four young men and two young ladies came to the altar and consecrated themselves to the work of the Lord, three to the ministry in the home land, one to the foreign field, and two to teaching in our mountain schools. It is an interesting fact that no collection was taken, and such financial arrangements were made as to render the annual convention self-supporting.

Your Board presents the following resolutions:

First, That the preachers as far as possible see that Leagues are organized in accordance with the requirements of the Discipline.

Second, That Anniversary Day be observed where it is practicable to do so, for we believe that in the observance of this day lie large possibilities for bringing the League work before the Church and providing funds for League extension.

J. H. MOSS, Chairman.

BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

The report of the American Bible Society for the past year shows that the work of the Society is still advancing. During the year nearly six and a half million volumes of the Word of God have been distributed through this agency. This is an increase of 1,145,147 volumes over the preceding year. In China alone the Society has issued 2,049,433 copies of the Bible and portions. The entire output for the year of the various Bible societies of the world reached nearly twenty-seven million volumes, of which 6,000,000 were for China.

The demands upon the American Bible Society have increased so largely that at this time it is facing a crisis. It is not true, as some seem to think, that the Society is an abundantly endowed institution. The income from the trust funds "would conduct the present operations of the Society for only about two months."

It has been brought to the attention of the Bible Society Board, that on account of the urgency of the demands upon the American Bible Society the reserve funds are in danger of being exhausted. The board of managers is calling for $150,000 as a special to meet the emergency. Unless this amount can be raised by the last of the present year, the Society, it is declared, will come to its Centennial next spring with its reserve funds exhausted and forced to a calamitous retrenchment of all its work at home and abroad. We trust the calamity will be averted, and we urge our people to respond readily and liberally to this appeal of the Society.

It is needful that we keep in mind the fact that the American Bible Society is an institution supplying the need for Bibles of the mission boards of the various churches, besides doing a vast amount of work of a missionary and benevolent character through its colporteurs and others of its own working forces; that its work is world-wide and is of a nature that makes it indispensable to the success of the missionary enterprises of the churches.

We call attention to the fact that next year will be the Centennial of the organization of the American Bible Society, and in view of this fact your Board recommends—

- 1. That a Sunday in April or May of next year be given to the observance of the Centennial, and that a collection be taken in each church within the bounds of the Conference.
- 2. That the Bible Society Board arrange for a special service to be held at some hour during the Conference session of 1916.
- 3. We request our pastors to aim at an offering for the American Bible Society equal to two cents per member of their charges.

W. G. BATES, Chairman.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests submits the following report:

The annual report of the Publishing House of the Church was before the committee, and we note with pleasure the extent of its business, in spite of the depressed financial conditions of the past year. The business of the three branches totals approximately a million dollars, and yet the decrease due to the war conditions was less than $3,500. We call the attention of the Conference to the service rendered our section of the Church by the Richmond branch, and bespeak for it an increased patronage. We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. S. Hunter as field agent of the Publishing House.

The Sunday-school literature prepared by our agents is constantly improving in quality while it increases in sales. We urge our pastors and people to see, not only that it is used in our schools, but that it is used intelligently, each class receiving that periodical which is specially prepared for it.

We feel deeply the loss which our Church has suffered in the death of Dr. Gross Alexander, who edited so ably the Methodist Quarterly Review. Under his leadership the Review was a credit to our Church and a great source of help to our preachers. We heartily endorse the choice of Dr. H. M. DuBose as his successor, and commend the Review under its new editor to a patronage more nearly commensurate with its merits.

The Christian Advocate, the Missionary Voice, and the Epworth Era continue their efficient connectional services, and deserve such support from our people as shall enable them still further to increase their efficiency.

We give this expression to the gratitude of the Conference to Dr. J. T. Whitley for his prompt and accurate work in the publication of our Conference Annual, and we regret that the number of its readers has decreased during the year. We recommend that Dr. Whitley be reappointed editor of the Annual, and that the Joint Board of Finance appropriate the usual amount for his services, and we recommend that three thousand copies of the Annual be published this year.

Our Conference organ has maintained during the year its standard of excellence. We note with special gratification its policy of leadership in the great interests of our Church, such as missions, temperance, Sunday-schools, education and evangelism, believing that advance upon these lines will always wait upon proper information. The enthusiasm of our people in all the activities of the Church will vary according to the knowledge of these activities which they possess, and for this reason the pastor who does not increase the circulation of the Advocate among his people loses a valuable ally.

We learn with regret of the withdrawal of Rev. G. H. Lambeth from the staff of the Advocate, and, while glad that his entire time may be given to the work of the pastorate, we shall miss the contributions from the pen of this ready writer.

We urge upon the editor of the Advocate the desirability of having the paper mailed at such a time each week that it may reach the more distant sections of our Conference before the following Sunday. In many of our homes the Advocate is reserved for Sunday reading, and no other time during the week is found for it. By failing to recognize this condition much of the influence of the paper may be sacrificed.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. James Cannon, Jr., as editor of the Advocate.

W. A. SMART, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE AND OTHER SOCIAL REFORMS.

It is the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ to preach the gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ to a lost and ruined world. The world cannot be saved by law. It must be regenerated by the power of the Holy Ghost. Any plan which attempts to substitute the law for the gospel must utterly fail.

But while this is true it is also equally true that Christian men are citizens, and as such have grave and weighty responsibilities which they can neither shirk nor ignore. Our membership in the Church of Jesus Christ, our citizenship in the kingdom of heaven, does not destroy our citizenship in the State or nation to which we belong. "Render unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's and to God the things which are God's," is the sweeping positive commandment of our Master to all His followers.

As citizens of the State, therefore, we are responsible to the extent of our influence and power for the character of the laws of the State in which we live. Law is simply the expression of the will of the ruler, whether it be of the king as supreme, or of the people through their representatives. In our country it is the expression of the will of the people declared through their chosen representatives. The people, therefore, are responsible for the laws under which they live, and Christian citizens are under obligation to use every effort to conform the laws of the State as nearly as possible to the ideals of justice, righteousness and love, which are the fundamental principles of the kingdom of heaven. We do not want the State to dominate the Church, nor do we want the Church as an organization to dominate the State. But no man can be a Christian in fact who does not carry the great principles of the religion of Jesus Christ into every relation of life, and as a Christian citizen he must be an active advocate of civic righteousness and a determined opponent of civic corruption and of evil laws.

The Christian citizenship of the great Commonwealths represented in this Conference is responsible up to the measure of its ability for the laws under which we live, and for the officials elected to administer the laws; and this great Conference reiterates to-day its call to all our people to demand that their representatives in the halls of legislation shall enact such laws as will properly represent the righteous will of the people, and protect our young life from "earthly, sensual and devilish" men and women, who for the sake of gain or the indulgence of appetite do not hesitate to destroy both body and soul, even of our choicest children, in hell.

In view of the conditions as they exist to-day, the following resolutions are hereby adopted:

- 1. We heartily endorse the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, and the National Anti-Saloon League in the great work which is being done for the advancement of temperance and sobriety throughout the nation, by Anti-Saloon League organization and methods. We recognize that the Anti-Saloon League is the most effective organization which has been developed to destroy the work of Satan, as carried on in the world through the organized liquor traffic. The League is indeed, as it declares, practically "The Church in Action Against the Saloon." We commend the officers of the League, both State and National, to the support and to the prayers of our people, that they may have sufficient money placed at their disposal to carry on their great work of education, and that they may have the courage and faith necessary to enable them to do the work committed to their hands, despite all the opposition which may rise up against them, bitter, slanderous and unserupulous though it oftentimes may be. We rejoice to learn that through the energetic activity of the League the overwhelming sentiment of the people of Virginia as expressed at the polls in September, 1914, will be properly represented in the General Assembly of Virginia by delegates and senators, who are heartily in favor of the passage of such legislation as will effectually destroy the legalized liquor traffic in Virginia, and as will adequately punish the criminals who may attempt to ignore or nullify the prohibition law.
- 2. We endorse the position of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, that the General Assembly of 1916 pass a general State-wide Prohibition law, which shall contain no exemptions as to wineries or breweries, and which shall contain all the prohibitory and law enforcement provisions necessary to secure genuine prohibition in Virginia, so that by the passage of such a law there may be no possibility of any effort being made to obstruct or to delay the operation of the prohibition law by appeals to the courts, on the basis of imaginary defects in the Enabling Act, as passed by the General Assembly, and adopted by the vote of the people. Furthermore, we agree with the declared policy of the League, calling for such provisions in the law as will secure State-wide enforcement, if necessary by a State Department, and as will require officers of the law to enforce the prohibition laws upon pain of removal in the event of dereliction of duty in the enforcement of said laws.

- 3. We heartily commend the effort of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland to secure State-wide prohibition for the people of that great State.
- 4. We commend the effort of the women of our country to promote the cause of temperance individually, and especially through the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Woman's Prohibition League of America.
- 5. We hereby extend the thanks of our people to those representatives of Virginia in Congress who voted for the submission of the National Prohibition Amendment to the several States for its ratification. We also extend our thanks to our senators for their efforts to secure prohibition for the District of Columbia. We appeal to our senators and to all our representatives in Congress to give their active, hearty support at the approaching session of Congress to prohibition for the District of Columbia, and to the resolution to submit to the several States the National Prohibition Constitutional Amendment.
- 6. We are glad to know that the debt of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, incurred in the State-wide campaign, has been reduced from $24,000 to $12,000. We believe, however, that the balance of this debt should be speedily paid, in order that the League may be free from this burden, and that the men who are responsible to the banks for the payment of this debt be relieved of the obligations which they assumed for the benefit of all the people of the State. We hereby pledge our united support to the officials of the League in their efforts to pay this debt, and should the Headquarters Committee of the League decide to ask the various cities and counties of the State to raise definite sums to cancel this debt, we will endeavor to pay our portion of the same. Our pulpits are open to the workers of the League, to present the work of the League and to take offerings for its support.
- 7. We rejoice to note the great efforts which are being made to protect society from the evils of social vice in its various forms. We favor the passage of the proposed laws to raise the age of consent, to abate by injunction proceedings, if necessary, houses of ill-fame, and to require officers of the law to enforce the laws against social immorality upon pain of removal for dereliction of duty in this regard.
- 8. We hereby request the presiding Bishop to appoint James Cannon, Jr., as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, J. Sidney Peters, as Field Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, and J. D. McAlister, as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Tennessee.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE ORPHANAGE.

It becomes our pleasant duty once again to report, that "the God of the fatherless" has been graciously pleased to continue to send His blessing upon your work at the Virginia Conference Orphanage during the fiscal year just closing.

In many particulars the year has furnished us with exceedingly trying experiences. Our heavy loss by death of our late treasurer, Mr. John P. Branch, who has been associated with the institution as its treasurer and as a member of the Board of Trustees since its beginning; the tragic death of Mrs. Anna Cabell Sharpe, the beloved wife of our superintendent and his assistant at the Orphanage for nearly seven years; a long drawn out and very expensive case of sickness of one of our older girls; a threatened epidemic of scarlet fever, happily averted by our possession of the infirmary; an unusually dry spring and summer, entailing the necessity of hauling water for washing purposes and for the use of the stock, and curtailing greatly the products from the farm; also the loss by cholera of a number of shoats, and by death of one of our horses; a stormy and inclement Christmas-tide, followed by a number of wet Sundays, resulting naturally in a shortage of subscriptions from many of the churches visited; -- all these and other accidents and incidents have contributed no little to the sum of our trials and difficulties; and yet in spite of them all-or rather through them all-the good Lord has not failed to remember us in mercy, nor to uphold the good work undertaken at the direction of His Holy Spirit in 1901.

The health of the children has been, and is, remarkably good, thanks, humanly speaking, to the good work done for us by our excellent volunteer medical staff. Dr. R. S. Preston, a recent addition, has been untiring in his attention to the children, while Dr. Marvin E. Nuckols, Dr. W. F. Mercer, Dr. Thomas W. Murrell, and Dr. J. Ross Perkins, have sustained their reputations of former years, and have not failed to furnish needed help in every case requiring their several skill. We can again gratefully report no death yet among the inmates of the Orphanage in all its history to date.

Financially our returns fall a little short of last year's receipts. The death of Mr. Branch has halted temporarily our attempt to raise money for additional cottages. The total cash receipts for the year were $19,474.08.

In our school work the children, for the most part, have shown signs of improvement. The sewing and millinery school did not run for the whole session this year, owing to the difficulty in obtaining a teacher, but some work has been accomplished along this line. There are three pupils in the class in stenography. One of our classes addresses, wraps and sorts in postal routes The Guardian, our little monthly, which under the gratis editorship of Mr. W. E. Woody, of St. James Church, Richmond, continues its usefulness and popularity. The profits of this little paper, amounting to $611.00, a little less than usual, were paid into the treasury of the Orphanage, as is customary.

During the year twenty-one boys and girls made a profession of religion, and, at their own request, united with Monument Church, Richmond.

Our Rosebud Society is in a flourishing condition, and our Sunday-school in good shape.

We are pushing the farm work. Pursuant to your instructions, we have engaged the services of a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, who has planned this year's work, and who will enter upon his residence at the Orphanage about July 1st.

Your superintendent expresses much gratification at the good impression upon the Church and excellent financial returns made by Rev. G. H. McFaden, Special Representative, and by Rev. J. W. Carroll, of our Conference, whom we have engaged temporarily to solicit for the Orphanage, as far as his health will permit, in three of our Districts, or in such parts of them as our regular agents have not been able to reach.

The superintendent also speaks highly of the good work done and the loyal support rendered by the Orphanage staff of matrons, teachers, and workers.

Since the above was written, the school at the Orphanage has been re-organized. Thirteen of our children attend the High School in the city of Richmond, and the other children—with the exception of the primary grades—now have the advantage of a whole day schooling, instead of half a day, as heretofore.

Owing to the generosity of some of our friends, two of our girls are students at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, and four are at Blackstone College for Girls. A gratifying feature of the last mentioned is the fact that some of these girls are receiving the benefit of a better education than we can afford to give at the expense of their sisters, who were raised at the Orphanage and placed in paying positions as soon as their time expired.

We have installed a printing plant, in the office of which two of our boys are acquiring their trade, and we expect soon to print The Guardian at the Orphanage. For some weeks we have been executing job printing, and it would seem from our brief experience that this new movement will more than pay for itself.

We have also given out contracts for electric light and power, and the workmen are now engaged in its installation.

We present for confirmation by the Conference as trustees of the Orphanage, J. Thompson Brown, of Richmond, in place of J. P. Branch, deceased; and Charles Syer, of Portsmouth, in place of Jno. L. Roper, resigned.

We respectfully request the presiding Bishop to appoint A. B. Sharpe as Superintendent, J. W. Bledsoe as Field Agent, and John W. Carroll as Solicitor for the Orphanage.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records has carefully examined the Journals of the several Districts, and so far as we are able to determine, find them well and faithfully kept. We have the following criticism to make: the record of the Charlottesville District lacks neatness. The records of the Eastern Shore, Rappahannock, Farmville, and Lynchburg Districts deserve special mention for their neatness, they being type-written and exceptionally well arranged.

J. B. LAVINDER, Chairman.

F. E. H. McLEAN, Secretary.

CHANGES IN BOUNDARIES OF CHARGES.

Charlottesville District.

1. East Albemarle Circuit is formed, with the following churches: Milton and Buckeyland from the Hinton Avenue charge, New Bethel from the Scottsville Circuit, and Union from the Fluvanna Circuit.

2. Zion is taken from the Louisa Circuit and placed on the Fluvanna Circuit.

Danville District.

1. Houston is taken from South Boston Circuit and put with South Boston station.

2. Glenwood is taken from South Boston Circuit and put on South Halifax Circuit.

3. Concord and West End (South Boston) are taken from South Boston Circuit and put on East Halifax Circuit.

4. Trinity and Cool Spring are taken from the Pittsylvania Circuit and put on the South Franklin Circuit.

Eastern Shore District.

1. Broadwater and Bethel have been separated from Belle Haven and made a new charge.

2. Craddockville is taken from Pungoteague Circuit and put with Belle Haven, making a charge to be known as Craddockville and Belle Haven.

Farmville District.

1. East Nottoway Circuit is formed, composed of May's and White's Chapel from the Nottoway Circuit, and Salem, Poplar Hill and Rocky Hill from the North Nottoway Circuit.

2. Nottoway Circuit to be composed of St. John's from the Amelia Circuit, Bethel from the North Nottoway Circuit, and St. Matthew's and St. Mark's from the original Nottoway Circuit.

3. Charlotte Circuit to be composed of Plantersville, Lebanon, Drake's Branch and Charlotte Court-house.

4. South Charlotte Circuit to be composed of Saxe, Phoenix, Hebron and New Hope.

Lynchburg District.

St. Andrew's from the Elba Circuit, and Hurt from Alta Vista Circuit, are put on the North Pittsylvania Circuit.

Norfolk District.

Wash Woods is taken from the South Princess Anne Circuit and put on the Princess Anne Circuit.

Petersburg District.

- 1. Wesley and Wood's churches from Matoaca charge, and Piney Grove from Chesterfield charge, constitute South Chesterfield Circuit.
- 2. Forest Chapel is taken from the Greenesville charge and added to the Emporia charge.
- 3. La Crosse church, from the South Hill charge, is added to the Mecklenburg Circuit.

Portsmouth District.

Port Norfolk and Pinner's is changed to Broad Street.

Rappahannock District.

Grace is taken from the King George Circuit and put with Colonial Beach.

OWNERSHIP OF CONFERENCE ORGAN.

We, your committee, charged with recommendations, etc., concerning the transfer of ownership in the Baltimore and Richmond Christian Advocate, after carefully considering the matter, unanimously recommend:

First, That the best interests of the Advocate, of the Conference, and of the Virginia Conference Orphanage will be conserved by transferring the ownership of the Advocate to the Orphanage Board, for the purpose of conducting it as the organ of the Virginia Conference.

Second, That the Orphanage Board is hereby authorized and advised to acquire the Advocate, if satisfactory terms can be arranged.

Third, That this committee be continued for the purpose for which it was ordered.

Committee.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF METHODS.

Your committee appointed to consider the paper presented by the Norfolk District Conference in reference to establishing a Chautauqua and Summer School of Methods at Virginia Beach, to be conducted under the auspices of the Virginia Conference, desires to report that it considers the plan both desirable and feasible.

Your committee suggests that the following committee be constituted and authorized to organize and promote the movement for the summer of 1916: G. C. Kelly, D. G. C. Butts, T. S. Southgate, M. C. Ferebee, and N. C. Scott.

G. H. LAMBETH, Secretary.

PAPER FROM NORFOLK DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Whereas, There is a growing need for skilled workers in every part of the Virginia Conference territory; and

Whereas, We have teachers scattered here and there in our midst who can reach our people if given the opportunity; and

Whereas, Many of our willing men and women cannot go on long journeys outside of Virginia to summer schools already established; and Whereas, Virginia Beach, just at our doors, offers facilities unsurpassed and at small cost, for holding a Summer Conference, or School of Methods:

Resolved, That we call the attention of the Virginia Annual Conference at its next session to the advantages of such a school for our Conference at Virginia Beach, and respectfully urge that steps be taken to inaugurate such a move; and we respectfully request the Chairmen of our Conference Boards to consider this matter thoughtfully.

SPECIAL SUPERANNUATE FUND.

(The following report was referred to a special committee, to be reported on at the next annual session.—Editor Annual.)

Your committee, to which was committed the paper from the Eastern Shore District Conference concerning a Fund for Conference Claimants, reports as follows:

Whereas, In keeping with the custom of the great industrial corporations of the country, the colleges and universities, the other great religious denominations, and the position of our own denomination which inaugurated some years ago and is now pressing the movement for a Superannuate Endowment Fund, it would seem to be the imperative duty of the Virginia Annual Conference to undertake, without delay, the task of raising the sum of at least three hundred thousand dollars as a permanent fund, the income from which shall be administered by the Joint Board of Finance as supplemental to the usual collection for Conference Claimants; therefore;

1. Resolved, That a suitable man be appointed, without salary, as Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund, who shall formulate plans, secure donations and deposit the same with the Conference Treasurer until the next session of the Annual Conference, when a Board shall be elected and incorporated, to hold and invest any such funds as may accrue to the account of this endowment.

- 2. That the Joint Board of Finance be authorized to advance the sum of three hundred dollars, or so much of it as may be needed by the Secretary for necessary office and traveling expenses.
- 3. That Rev. G. W. Wray be appointed the said Secretary for the next ensuing Conference year.

L. HUNTER EARLY, Chairman.

J. H. LIGHT, Secretary.

CHAPLAIN TO THE STATE PENITENTIARY.

"Confined in the Penitentiary and at the State Farm are hundreds of prisoners. The religious instruction of these men is limited to a sermon when a minister can preach, and to a Sunday-school taught by a few faithful men and women. There is great need of some religious person coming in close contact with these prisoners so as to advise with them and lead them to a better life. This cannot be done by any one visiting occasionally. To meet this need the State should provide for a chaplain to the Penitentiary and Farm, and a suitable man should be selected by the properly constituted authorities. In doing this Virginia will be following the example of many States in the Union, for many have prison chaplains.

"In calling upon the State to give attention to the moral and religious life of the men confined, we do not feel that there is any violation whatever of the constitutional provision to separate Church and State. The man who would be appointed would not be there to teach the tenets of any sect or denomination represented by any church, nor would he be there because he was approved by any particular denomination, nor yet would he be excluded because he was a member of any denomination. He would be there to persuade men to be better, and to fear the God over us all.

"For the government to employ chaplains is a custom well established both by the Nation and the State, and is not called in question as opposed to the fullest religious liberty and the complete separation of Church and State. The National Government employs chaplains in each house of Congress. The Army and Navy have their regularly appointed chaplains, and every Federal prison has its chaplain. In Virginia the same custom has long been in vogue. During the days of the Confederacy we recall the noted men who were appointed chaplains by the State and were paid out of the common funds, as were the soldiers. To-day every regiment has its chaplain, and he too is paid by the State when the regiment is called into service. For years the University of Virginia had a chaplain, and this is true of other institutions. It is not consistent for the State of Virginia to provide for chaplains for her soldiers and students, and neglect the class which above all others needs the services of a religious adviser, viz.: the prisoners confined in the Penitentiary and those in camp."

In view of the above-named facts we respectfully urge the Legislature of the State of Virginia to make special provision for a permanent chaplain to the prisoners of the State, to those confined in the Penitentiary, to those at the Farm, and to those in road camps when practicable to reach them. We request the presiding Bishop to appoint a committee of three to co-operate with others in urging the Legislature to provide a chaplain for these prisoners.

W. ASBURY CHRISTIAN, J. K. JOLLIFF, J. L. BRAY,

Committee.

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

The Board makes the following report on papers referred to it:

1. The resolution of L. G. Crutchfield and others, relative to prorating the benevolence collections when they are not raised in full, was considered, and we report that we do not think action upon it at this time is necessary.

2. We recommend for adoption the resolution of the Petersburg District Conference, recommending and urging the pastoral charges of the Conference to pay all its married itinerant preachers in full connection an annual salary of not less than nine hundred dollars, exclusive of parsonage or rent of a residence, and not less than seven hundred dollars to unmarried itinerant preachers in full connection.

B. M. BECKHAM, Chairman.

W. ASBURY CHRISTIAN, Secretary.

BIBLE COMMENTARIES

The Bible Commentary

Also Known as

The Speaker's Commentary

Edited by

F. C. COOK, M. A.

Canon of Exeter, Preacher at Lincoln's Inn, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen.

HE great object of this Commentary is to put the general reader in full possession of whatever information may be requisite to enable him to understand the Holy Scriptures, to give him, as far as possible, the same advantage as the scholar, and to supply him with satisfactory answers to objections resting upon the misrepresentation of the text.

The comment is chiefly explanatory, presenting, in a concise and readable form, the results of learned investigations carried on in this and other countries during the last half century. When fuller discussions of difficult passages or important subjects are necessary, they are placed at the end of the chapter or of the volume.

Ellicott's Commentary

Edited by

CHARLES J. ELLICOTT, D. D.

Late Lord Bishop of Gloucester

O one writer is sufficiently strong to treat with equal ability all of the books of the Bible; so that commentaries on the whole Bible by any one writer are found to be less desirable than commentaries on given books by scholars who have specialized on them. This is the attractive feature of Bishop Ellicott's Commentary on the Bible, in which that great Biblical scholar consents to supervise the work of a number of the best scholars, suggesting changes now and then as editor of the whole, but permitting the selected commentator on each book to give his final and independent view after full consideration of the points raised.
